IN BERLIN—SHOTS FIRED

LONDON, Dec. 6.—Serious disorders have arisen in Berlin and considerable firing has occurred in the principal streets, according to reports reaching the Dutch-German frontier, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Amsterdam. The trouble is said to have been caused by the German bolsheviks.

The Zurich correspondent of the Paris Journal reported Thursday that terrorist revolution would break out in Berlin Friday evening led by Dr. Liebknecht with 15,000 armed men.

Extraordinary Story of Raising of Submarine Stuck in Mud for 57 Hours

31 on Board Drowned as Water Poured In—Captain Gave Life to Save Others

LONDON, Nov. 29 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—An extraordinary story of the salvage of a British submarine which went down in Gaelic loch, near the Clyde, has now been published.

The submarine had 73 persons on board, including naval contractors and men from the yard where she had been built. The order was given to submerge and she had descended just beneath the surface when water began to pour into her and she descended stern down to a depth of 15 fathoms. An inspection showed that the ventilating shaft had been left open and 31 persons in the rear of the vessel were immediately drowned. The fore part was shut off and the 42 persons there were saved.

A few hours had passed before divers were sent down on what they considered a forlorn hope so far as bringing any one up alive was concerned. Getting to the bottom they discovered that the stern of the vessel

SERIES OF LECTURES ON SOCIAL HYGIENE

A meeting of the Federation of Churches was held this afternoon at the Y.M.C.A. at 1.30 o'clock. The meeting was called, mainly through a request for an interview, by social workers of this city. Miss Winifred Sherwood and Miss Florence Nye spoke before the ministers of Lowell in regard to a series of lectures to be conducted here, on Social Hygiene. These two women arrived from Boston today, and were accompanied by Miss Emily Skilton, who introduced them to the federation. The government is furthering a movement through the women's department of training camp activities, whereby standardized lectures, given by physicians, may be delivered to the women and girls in large cities. The federation approved of the movement and strongly recommended the furtherance of the lecture, stating that they were aware of the importance and need of such social service.

Miss Sherwood and Miss Nye also spoke before a young women's welfare committee which has been organized under the direction of Miss Skilton and is a sub-committee of the public safety committee, at 4.30 o'clock

ROGERS TO ASK
NEW P. OFFICE

Wants McAdoo's Recommendation Carried Out by Congress

Will Also Move for Action on River Project After New Year

(Special to The Sun)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Congressman Rogers will immediately take up two questions of great importance to Lowell, one is the matter of a new postoffice and the other the development and improvement of the Merrimack river.

Mr. Rogers put before congress more than a year ago a bill for a new postoffice asking six hundred thousand dollars appropriation but, owing to war needs and the consequent ban on public buildings, he refrained from urging congressional action, stating that he believed our war needs should be first provided for.

Mr. Rogers will now urge the passage of the bill and he feels encouraged on the prospect of committee approval and passage by congress as Lowell was one of the few cities named by Mr. McAdoo in urgent need of such a building as under existing conditions, public convenience has suffered for lack of suitable facilities.

Mr. Rogers also intends to take a strong hand in the matter of Merrimack river improvements as soon as the legislative session opens in January. The state is to assume one-half the expense. The state legislature passed the necessary bill but Mrs. McAdoo vetoed action by the government and none will now be taken until the state again acts and the bill is actually in effect. Mr. Rogers will urge the Massachusetts legislature to pass the bill after the New Year. He is hopeful of seeing that accomplished and the great Merrimack improvement project put in actual motion.

Think what some of us Old Ones, who now are giving advice, might have stored away if we had started a savings account at Middlesex Trust Co. years ago and added to it twelve (12) times a year—the last day of each month, or in the savings department of any Massachusetts Trust Company, whose depositors, remember, have NEVER LOST A DOLLAR.

Fugitives From Russia Say
That Life in Petrograd Is Terrible

Middle Class People Are Dying of Starvation by Thousands

STOCKHOLM, Thursday, Dec. 5.—(By the Associated Press).—Fugitives from Russia say that life in Petrograd is terrible. The famine there they say, defies the imagination. Flour is selling for 50 rubles and butter and sugar for 150 rubles per kilogram (2.20 pounds). Herring are the only food obtainable and sell for five rubles each. All middle class elements are excluded from public eating houses and are dying of starvation by thousands. Hundreds are buried each day between 5 and 9 o'clock in the morning, no funerals being permitted later during the day. Of a normal population of two million, only half a million are left in Petrograd. The city looks deserted. Half of all the flats are occupied by Red Guards and their families. Hotels, restaurants, cafes and offices are closed. The houses of the middle class are deserted, their furniture stolen and windows smashed.

Many widely-known persons have been shot or have starved to death recently. Rumors of approaching famine intervention have increased Bolshevik hatred and resulted in frenzied persecution of the middle class elements. There is great nervousness in the neutral legations. The Polish legation has been looted while the Swiss legation has been entered forcibly. The personnel of this legation has left Petrograd.

FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Public Opinion Should Be Chief Factor in Enforcing Decrees, Says Sen. Lewis

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Public opinion and not military force, should and would be the chief factor in enforcing decrees of a league of nations, Senator Lewis of Illinois, democrat, declared today in an address in the senate. Public opinion, he said, brought about the defeat of Germany and it was public opinion that the world must look in the future to preserve peace.

Senator Lewis said that because of the demands that might be made by some nations against others, the successful operation of the league might furnish greater cause for apprehension than its failure to function.

Illustrating, he said, "In Asia, Japan, taking China in her hands, will seek to establish a new France to demand of us as a faithful ally, the abandonment of recognition of the Asiatic from our citizenship. And if these European allies decline, they become the victims of Japan's national discrimination in trade. If they consent and successfully prevail upon us, promptly will they exact of Japan and her associates to command us to take down the barriers of obstruction to Europe in South and Central America—called the Monroe Doctrine. From all these our tomorrow are filled with perils and our today with a warning."

"We must insist now on unrestricted freedom of the seas. I define this for the United States to be an open sea, free ports, free harbors, to us to the same extent any nation extends to its own people and as extended by the United States to other nations. I feel that to us a Suez canal as free as to Britain and a Mediterranean as free as to France are due in exchange for our making our Panama canal and Manila Bay free to these nations. From these demands we will run counter to a self-serving interest long preserved by these people as their policy of commercial preservation. For us to demand the abandonment of these means confusion and embarrassment from which can follow what has followed from similar situations in past years—conflict."

Referring to President Wilson's mission abroad, Senator Lewis quoted a Biblical passage in which Moses was warned against making "a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee."

LOWELL ROBED IN WHITE

First Real Snow Storm of Season—Nine Inches of Snow Here

Lowell made an impressive debut today in the 1918-19 season of her winter career, garbed in a mantle of serene white. Today marked the first big storm of the season.

Up to early afternoon nine inches of snow had fallen. The storm began about 2.15 this morning and continued without let-up until the noon hour when the flakes began to fall with less volume and continuity until finally they ceased entirely.

As usual, the agencies of transportation were first affected. At 4 o'clock the Bay State Street Railway Co. began to get its snow plows out for their first little jaunt of the season.

As the storm continued, the number of plows increased to battle it until eventually there was an even dozen of the big " tanks" doing duty.

Supt. Thomas Lees said that the greatest hindrance caused by the storm was on the Lawrence line where the service last spring and was assigned to Camp Devens for training. On July 3 he left for overseas and since then he had written home consistently to his father, Manuel J. Perry of 7 Proctor's court, and other relatives concerning his experiences "over there."

The last letter from his was dated Oct. 14 and was received by his father about five weeks ago. At that time he was in the best of health, but expressed a strong desire to visit Portugal before he returned to his home in Lowell.

The Lowell soldier was 23 years old and before assuming the duties of army life was employed by the Hazlett Mfg. Co.

Besides his father, he leaves four brothers, Jesse, John, Frank and Joseph Perry, and three sisters, Mrs. Emma Pralus, Mrs. Isabelle Elnel and Miss Lena Perry.

ALLIED AND AMERICAN FORCES TO OCCUPY BERLIN

COPENHAGEN, Thursday, Dec. 5.—Allied and American forces will temporarily occupy Berlin, exercising police supervision according to the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung of Berlin, which says that an American wireless despatch to this effect has been intercepted by the Germans. The newspaper says that Mannheim will be similarly occupied. The reason for the action on the part of the allies is said to be a "regrettable incident during which a supervisor of a prisoners' camp shot three Frenchmen."

HEARST MAN IN GERMAN PLOT

Messages From Bernstorff to Berlin Submitted at Brewery Inquiry

American Journalist Sent to Berlin Acted as Agent for German Propaganda

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—In telling his story of German propaganda in America, A. Bruce Bielaski, chief of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, today laid before the senate committee investigating brewery and German propaganda cablegrams exchanged in 1914 by Count von Bernstorff, then ambassador here, and the Berlin foreign office.

One of Bernstorff's messages urged that special favor be shown William Bayard Hale, an American about to visit Berlin as a newspaper correspondent, because he was employed by the Hearst organs, which the message said had outspokenly placed themselves on the German side.

Paid by German Propagandists
Bielaski told the committee that Hale was on the Hearst payroll for $300 a week, and also was employed at $15,000 a year by a publicity organization formed in this country by Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, the German propagandist.

Suggesting on June 2, 1916, that the time was favorable to get Hearst to send a first rate journalist to Berlin, Bernstorff told the foreign office that the man selected was Hale, who he said, had been a confidential agent of the embassy since the beginning of the war, and was bound as such by contract to June 23, 1918.

"Hearst," the ambassador's message said, "is not aware that Hale is our agent, but knows him only as a Germanophile journalist, who has contributed leading articles to papers."

Try to Keep Rumors Out of War
Hale, according to Bielaski, was paid by the German government to visit Lunkans and, if possible, prevent entrance of that nation into the war. Mr. Hearst, Bielaski said, was ignorant of Hale's employment on the latter mission.

Bielaski said Germany never succeeded in seducing an American official "if we except Congressman Buchanan of Illinois, who got mixed up with von Rintelen in Labor's Peace Council."

List of Active Pro-Germans

From the diary of Dr. Karl A. Fuehr, a German agent brought to America by von Bernstorff, was produced a paper labelled "Important list of names," which, Mr. Bielaski said, contained "practically all who were actively pro-German prior to our entrance into the war and a few who were active afterwards."

The first included Prof. Albert Bushnell Hart, Professor Hugo Munsterberg and Prof. Kuno Franke of Harvard.

Lloyd George Reiterates Demand for Punishment of Men Responsible for War

War a Hideous Crime
Which Sent Millions to Their Graves

LONDON, Thursday, Dec. 5.—In the detailed restatement of his policy, issued by Premier Lloyd George today, calling for the trial and punishment of the men responsible for the war, however high their place, he pledged the entire influence of the British government at the peace conference to see that justice was done.

Remember the "Scrap of Paper"
"The Kaiser must be prosecuted," the statement says. "The war was a crime. Who doubts that? It was a frightful, terrible crime. It was a crime in the way in which it was planned and in the deliberate wantonness with which it was provoked. It was also a crime in the invasion of a helpless little state and in the wicked and most brutal treatment of that little state. Remember the treaty of neutrality! The scrap of paper!"

"Surely, the war was a crime. The fact that all these iniquitous things were done in the name of war and under the imperial edict of an autocrat does not change their nature. The war was a hideous, abominable crime."

Issue Statement Calling for Assembly

BERLIN, Wednesday, Dec. 4 (By the Associated Press).—Eight hundred and forty-six members of faculties of German universities have signed a statement demanding the earliest possible convocation of a national assembly. Among the reasons given by the signers is that the new American congress which comes into office on March 4, "likely will be dominated by republican imperialists, who will oppose President Wilson's 14 points." The call concludes: "If we desire an even half way tolerable peace which would serve the vital interests of Germany we must, at least, conclude a temporary peace before that time."

Janitors' Examination

There will be an examination for the position of janitor in the employ of the city of Lowell in the councilmanic chamber at city hall Dec. 13 at 9 a. m. D. A. Dooley, examiner for the civil service commission, will be in charge. Fifteen applicants will take the examination.

An Explanation

In commenting on a number of advances in wages in the water department as announced yesterday, Commissioner Brown said this morning that the increases were merely a matter of re-adjustment in his department. At the time that employees of the department were working on the government housing site in Belvidere they requested a raise of pay of from $2.50 and $3.75 a day to $4 and $4.50. Inasmuch as they were employed on government work, Mr. Brown contends that he had no alternative but to grant the increase and the result was that some of the laborers of the department were getting as much pay as their foremen. Hence, the general re-adjustment.

An Invitation

Mayor Thompson has received an invitation from James O'Sullivan, chairman of the committee in charge of the mass meeting to be held in association with the United Irish Societies of the city. His Honor will attend.

Infant Mortality

Lowell led all the large cities of the United States in infant mortality rate for the week ending Nov. 29, according to figures received at the office of the board of health today. The rate was 25.14. Newark was second with 21.5. Milwaukee 18.7, Dayton 15.6, and Buffalo 14.3. Boston's rate was 14.9, Chicago 12.14, and New York 12.7. Oakland was low with 1.9, and the average rate was 10.1.

Christmas Tree Celebration

Plans are progressing for a big night before Christmas celebration this year in front of city hall. Mayor Thompson is working in co-operation with the park department on the matter and an excellent program of exercises is being arranged. The park department is still on the outlook for a suitable arbor.

The regular monthly meeting of the park commission will be held Monday evening at 7.15.

My Annual December OVERCOAT SALE

I want to get rid of $6,000 worth of Winter Overcoatings between now and the first of January. November, my big overcoat month, has gone by with only ordinary business. I'd be kidding only myself if I carried over till next Fall the goods I bought to sell this Winter.

MY MOTTO FOR 20 YEARS
Every Garment Must Be Sold in the Season for Which it Was Bought.

Beware of what you purchase today, this is a season of CAMOUFLAGE in clothes. Many materials shown, will not prove to be what their appearance indicates on the surface; reputations that have taken years to build will be sacrificed.

Over a year ago, before woollens took wings and soared, I wisely seized the opportunity when prices were at their lowest; as a result, today most fortunately, I afford you the opportunity to buy the best clothing possible, manufactured from the best woollens made in America, made to your order and taste, at practically old-time prices.

Now then, I have no sentimental regard for the cash price—or the present market value; don't even consider the scarcity of woollens today, when I decide to make a market for these things!

I can't put them on my shelves as a relic of war-time, I must sell them—and you must buy them—I say you must buy because I am going to sell them in this sale at prices that will make you buy them.

Twenty different styles in overcoatings to select from. All the popular shades this season, made any style to comply along government restrictions. For the young men semi-military coats are very popular. These I make up with a three way collar, belted back, box plaited, plain or fancy pockets, cut to any angle to suit purchaser. The school children had another vacation today. The storm signal was sounded both this morning and this afternoon because of the prevailing conditions.

Commissioner Morse of the street department did not attempt to do anything in the way of clearing off snow until this afternoon when the storm had abated. Then he ordered a corps of men out to clean up bridges and sidewalks adjacent to public buildings.

The snow itself was of an unusually light character and the opinion is expressed generally that it will have very short duration on the ground. The weather man predicts clearing and colder weather this evening.

The Boston & Maine people reported that the snow was of such a light character that it had practically no effect on the running time of trains to and from Lowell. All of them were able to maintain their usual schedule.

Decision to Try Kaiser
The British government referred the question of the criminal culpability of the Kaiser and his accomplices to their law officers some weeks ago. They invited a body of jurists in England to investigate the matter and they have unanimously come to the conclusion that the Kaiser and his accomplices in the making of this war ought to be tried by an international court. They also reported strongly in favor of the punishment of those guilty of murder on the high seas and the abominable ill-treatment of prisoners.

Justice Must Be Executed
The British government will use its whole influence at the peace conference to see that justice is executed.

"After what has happened in the last four or five years it is impossible to entertain in our midst a population of which a considerable portion abused our hospitality. This has been demonstrated by evidence impossible to ignore. They spied and plotted and assisted Germany in forming plans for the destruction of a country which offered them hospitality. They thus have forfeited any claim to remain.

"Further, it would lead to inevitable irritation and disturbance if Germans who have been fighting us for years came here to take the bread out of the mouths of men whom they for four years sought to destroy, and much as I regret that it is impossible to have intercourse between all nations, I hold we are up against the events of the last few years, for which Germany alone is responsible and she must abide the consequences. All the European allies have accepted the principle that the central powers must pay the cost of the war up to the limit of their capacity. The allies propose to appoint a committee of experts to examine the best method of exacting the indemnity."

Winston Spencer Churchill made this announcement in a speech here yesterday.

Punish All Guilty Officials
LONDON, Wednesday, Dec. 4.—German officials guilty of acts which resulted in injury or danger to British prisoners of war should be held personally responsible, says Lord Robert Cecil, former assistant secretary of state for foreign affairs. In a message relative to the attitude of the government on the subject of treatment of prisoners, he says:

"If we are satisfied that any of our soldiers or civilians (below subjects) have been ill-treated in such a way as to injure their health or endanger their lives, we should make it perfectly clear that we will personally hold the official responsible for the ill-treatment, and, if necessary, try him for his life. This should be done, be he Kaiser or any subordinate."

Control of Colonies
LONDON, Thursday, Dec. 5.—Lord Robert Cecil has been asked by the government to take charge of the British section at the peace conference which will deal with the formation of a league of nations. He made this announcement tonight in an address at Leichworth.

Natives of Germany's colonies want to come under British rule, according to Walter Hume Long, secretary of state for colonies, who spoke at Westminster tonight.

"Our representatives at the peace conference should see that the case for our retention of those colonies is put forward in full strength," he said. "It will be a gross injustice to our great dominions to tell them that these colonies, which, in a large measure they conquered by their blood and valor are to pass under the control of anybody but the empire to which they belong."

was embedded in many feet of mud. Knocking at the hull, they were amazed to hear a responsive tapping.

Then Captain Goodhart attempted a task which reads like a tale from Jules Verne. High pressure bottles were brought into use and the captain undertook with their aid to be projected through the conning tower and shot into the water with the hope of reaching the surface and giving information concerning those below. He was shot forward but his head struck a beam and he was instantly killed. Another officer volunteered and was fortunate enough to reach the surface. Rescuers inserted through a water flap a flexible hose through which air, food and chocolate were passed. The embedded men asked, by means of Morse signaling, for playing cards "to begone the tedium of waiting," as one of them said.

Strong wires were put around the vessel and the air bottles were utilized to blow out the oil fuel stored forward, which enabled the vessel to drive upwards at high speed until her bow was well above the water in a perpendicular position. Immediately a big hole was made in her by acetylene burners and the 12 men brought out and conveyed to an infirmary. They had been below 21 hours when Captain Goodhart made his ill-fated attempt and altogether the party was down 27 hours before being saved. Captain Goodhart was posthumously awarded the Victoria Cross.

ANOTHER JOB FOR CONNIE CRONIN

Connie P. Cronin, examiner in charge of the local United States employment service, has received notice from Charles E. Park, assistant federal director of the state employment service, of his appointment to the position of farm labor agent for Lowell and the surrounding towns. Mr. Cronin's name was submitted to the Washington authorities by the Lowell board of trade.

Mr. Cronin noted today that he has been advised by Charles E. Getteny, a student director of the state employment service, that he wishes him to forward the names of all those who registered in this city at the local employment bureau since it opened for business, and who have failed to take any steps since in the matter of enrolling in the ranks of industry.

Mr. Cronin will also send a letter to each of these individuals who at the present time number over 200, asking them to come down to 113 Merrimack street and talk things over a bit. Although the law providing that every able-bodied man in this state must work at least 36 hours a week has been annulled, these records will be kept for future reference, and it would be advisable, Mr. Cronin says, that these delinquents report to him upon receipt of the before-mentioned letter, and make some effort towards engaging in a useful occupation. "Plenty of work for all" is Mr. Cronin's slogan still, and he states that no one need remain idle in Lowell unless he has a constitutional aversion to work.

S.A.T.C. MEN MUST PAY OWN WAY NOW

The government will not send its student soldiers through college free. The student soldiers at Harvard have been told that they will have to pay their way through if they wish to complete their courses.

The college has given them one concession. Members of the S.A.T.C. will not be obliged to take the entrance examinations. They will also be given credit for college work completed before Christmas.

HEALTH TALK

SPANISH INFLUENZA OR GRIP BY DR. LEE H. SMITH

An old enemy, is with us again, and whether we fight a German or a germ, we must put up a good fight, and not be afraid. The influenza runs a very brief course when the patient is careful, and if we keep the system in good condition and throw off the poisons which tend to accumulate within our bodies, we can escape the disease. Remember these three C's—a clean mouth, a clean skin, and clean bowels. To carry off poisons from the system and keep the bowels loose, daily doses of a pleasant laxative should be taken. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of aloë, root of jalap, and called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Hot lemonade should be used freely if attacked by a cold, and the patient should be put to bed after a hot mustard foot-bath.

To prevent the attack of bronchitis or pneumonia and to control the pain, Anuric tablets should be obtained at the drug store, and one given every two hours, with lemonade. The Anuric tablets were first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and as they flush the bladder and cleanse the kidneys, they carry away much of the poisons and the uric acid.

It is important that broths, milk, buttermilk, ice cream and simple diet be given regularly to strengthen the system and increase the vital resistance. The fever is diminished by the use of the Anuric tablets, but in addition, the forehead, arms and hands may be bathed with water (tepid) in which a tablespoonful of salutarin has been dissolved in a quart. After an attack of grip or pneumonia to build up and strengthen the system, obtain at the drug store a good iron tonic, called "Troutie" Tablets, or that well known herbol tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.—Adv.

The general secretary's report told details of the work for November, which, according to figures, was still busier than October. In referring to the growth of the league, she spoke with appreciation of the zeal of directors and other members that have devoted time, thought and interest, with the spirit that wants to be of assistance without any question of credit, the spirit that is bound to obtain results, and with the league, has been present on the board and staff.

Special matters concerning co-operation and concerning the welfare of the city were discussed.

U. S. DID NOT EXPECT VICTORY SO SOON

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The army program of 50 divisions in France by June 30, 1919, was embarked upon with complete confidence that Germany could and would be defeated during 1919 if the project was carried out. Gen. March, chief of staff, declares in his annual report to Secretary Baker, made public yesterday. That conviction was based on a comparative study of the whole war situation ordered by Gen. March immediately after he assumed his duties as the head of the army last March.

"After a study of the entire situation," the report says, "including as accurate an estimate of the potential strength of our allies on the western front and of the probable German strength as was possible, I came to this conclusion: That the war might be brought to an end in 1919, provided we were able to land in France by June 30 of that year 80 American divisions of a strength of 3,300,000 men."

"On July 18, 1918, I submitted to you a formal memorandum, accompanied by a study of methods by which the men could be obtained, the supplies procured, and an analysis of the shipping which must be obtained in order to accomplish this very large military program. This was accompanied by an estimate of the cost of the proposed program."

"In this study, I recommended to you the adoption, as the American program of 50 divisions in France and 15 at home by June 30, 1919, based on a total strength of the American army of 4,550,000. This was approved by you and by the president of the United States and adopted as our formal military program. To carry this program into effect required the adoption by congress of a change in the draft ages, so as to include men between the ages of 18 and 45 years, and also created a deficiency under the enormous appropriations already made by congress of some $7,000,000,000. The presentation of the program to congress accompanied by the statement that this increase in the army, if laws were passed by congress which would make it effective, would lead to success in 1919, produced prompt and favorable consideration by that body."

"Up to the signing of the armistice, troops were being transported to France monthly in accordance with that program. The results speak for themselves."

The remainder of the report is devoted to a presentation of the steps it was found necessary to take to build up an adequate general staff and the announcement that a complete plan of reorganization for the army, including the staff, is being worked out.

"I have directed the divisions of the general staff concerned to study and submit for your consideration a plan for the reorganization of our army which will take advantage of our experience in this war, which has brought about many changes in organization of all arms of the service and has developed new arms not known when the war started. Hoover. The message follows: "Now that the terrible war is over, you must be glad that you helped win it by saving food for our soldiers and our unhappy friends across the sea. But our work of feeding hungry people is now to be greater than it has ever been. Many millions of people have been made free by our victory, but they are in the greatest danger of death from starvation. They look to America for food until the next harvest. We must go on saving and sharing with them as faithfully as ever. And of course you will want to do your part as you have been doing. We have a greater task than any of us can imagine in saving the world from famine."

BRITISH WARSHIPS AT SEAPORT OF REVAL

PARIS, Dec. 6 (Havas).—British warships have entered the Russian seaport of Reval, according to the Petiti Journal, in answer to an urgent request from the government of Estonia. Similar action will be taken, the newspaper adds, if any other of the small Baltic nations ask allied protection.

SNOW TIES UP TRAFFIC IN N. E.

BOSTON, Dec. 6.—Railroad and street car traffic was somewhat delayed today by a five-inch snowfall. The storm began about 3 a. m. and continued throughout the forenoon. Reports to the weather bureau said it was snowing as far north as Burlington, Vt., and as far as Buffalo, N. Y., to the westward. South of Boston the storm was less severe and at Nantucket rain was falling. Clearing weather was promised for tonight.

SEARCH FOR MURDERER

Man Shot Officer, Ran Down and Killed Girl, Then Shot Wife and Killed Boarder

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Dec. 6.—Police throughout New York and Pennsylvania were trying today to capture Michael Wishinsky. He was indicted several months ago for shooting at an officer. While out on bail, he ran down and killed a young woman. She was struck by an automobile he was driving at a reckless rate of speed and although she clung to the radiator in an effort to save herself, he increased the speed of the machine. Today he returned to his home in Endicott, shot his wife and killed a boarder. He was last seen going toward a patch of woods.

SAVE SEVEN BILLIONS ON CONTRACTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Secretary Baker told the senate finance committee yesterday that through contract cancellations the war department expects to save approximately $7,250,000,000 of the $24,251,000,000 voted by congress for the army during the war.

The war secretary told the senate finance committee, members of the committee said, that congress will need to appropriate only about $1,100,000,000 to cover contracts made under the $5,000,000,000 of authorizations provided by congress, and for which no actual appropriations have been made.

The secretary's statement to the house appropriations committee said the department's disbursements to date in the United States total $9,155,000,000 and those in France $1,165,000,000.

Mr. Baker previously had informed the committee of these contract cancellations, aggregating about $2,600,000,000. These include: Powder, $275,000,000; artillery, $750,000,000; motor vehicles, $282,000,000; textile, $264,000,000; airplane parts, $256,000,000; gas defense equipment $120,000,000; contracts for rifles, shoes, harness, rubber goods, chemicals, barbed wire and steel and iron products, aggregating millions of dollars, also have been cancelled.

Forty per cent of the cancellations have been decided among states. Mr. Baker said, enumerating those in Massachusetts as amounting to $231,000,000; Michigan, $143,000,000; Connecticut, $55,000,000; New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Missouri, $99,000,000 each; Illinois and Tennessee $55,000,000 each; Indiana, $44,000,000; New Jersey, $25,300,000; Rhode Island, Wisconsin, Maine, New Hampshire and Minnesota, $11,000,000 each; Maryland, $2,200,000; Virginia, $5,500,000; and California, $400,000,000.

SOLDIERS' PUNISHMENT

Practice of Tying Prisoners to Bars of Cells Abolished by Secretary Baker

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The practice of tying military prisoners to the bars of cells and all other methods of severe corporal punishment, have been ordered abolished by the war department. Secretary Baker, in making this announcement today, said the efficiency of such punishment as a deterrent to violation of military rules had been found to be questionable.

HELD ON CHARGE OF BRIBING YEOMAN

BOSTON, Dec. 6.—Edward J. Klous, head of the E. J. Klous Electric Co., of this city, was arrested by federal officers today charged with bribing Albert E. Warburton, a yeoman attached to the cost inspection department of the navy, in connection with contracts for electrical work on torpedo boat destroyers. Klous pleaded not guilty before a federal commissioner and furnished $1000 bonds for appearance, later.

NINE HOURS' PAY FOR 8 HOUR DAY

PAWTUCKET, R. I., Dec. 6.—The United Textile Workers of America decided at a conference held in New York, recently, to demand nine hours' pay for an eight hour day beginning February 3. Until this demand is endorsed by local unions it will be ineffective. Many of the local unions are now considering the matter.

TEMPERANCE WORKERS ADOPT PLEDGE SENT OUT BY FOOD ADMINISTRATION

ORONO, Me., Dec. 6.—Notification that the 5000 members of the Maine Women's Christian Temperance union have adopted the pledge sent out by the food administration for world relief was received today by State Administrator Leon S. Merrill from Mrs. Althea G. Quimby, president of the state organization.

CLEAR GRIDIRON FOR GAME

MARLBOROUGH, Dec. 6.—Although five inches of snow fell today, members of the Marlborough high school team which is scheduled to have an inter-sectional football game with Scott High of Toledo, here, tomorrow, were hopeful that the contest could be played. The work of clearing the field began this morning, a large number of students assisting, and Herbert Humphrey, who guaranteed financial backing for the contest, said every effort would be made to have the field in suitable condition.

YANKEES MOVE ON TO RHINE

Scores of Additional Towns Brought Under Domination of American Army

Gen. Pershing's Proclamation to Natives Urges Return to Normal Pursuits

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Monday, Dec. 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Studied indifference again characterized the German reception of American troops on their way to the Rhine today. General Dickman's army renewed its advance at daylight and by tonight had reached the line approximately 12 miles to the eastward. Scores of additional villages and small towns were brought under the domination of the American army, but none of them is of great importance.

Pershing's Proclamation
At American headquarters in Treves, General Brown, as military governor and General Smith, who is in charge of civil affairs, have begun the work of administration. Local authorities in virtually every community have agreed to retain their posts and cooperate in maintenance of order. General Pershing has issued a proclamation calling upon the people to return to their normal pursuits and assuring them that if the conduct of military affairs is not molested and if good order is kept, they will not be interfered with. The proclamation gives information of the places American forces will occupy under the terms of the armistice and explains in detail which towns will be garrisoned and which will be merely included in occupied territory. This proclamation, posted on walls in different places, has been read carefully by crowds, but there has been no sign of emotion.

130 Hun Airplanes for Allies
The towns through which the troops passed today presented an appearance similar to those entered on Sunday.

Blinds were drawn in many cases and most of the inhabitants remained indoors rather than countenance the invasion by witnessing it. The children in the towns occupied on the first day of the advance and today to 1 to restrain their childish enthusiasm, but the attitude of the grown-ups was unaltered. At Treves 130 airplanes were found ready for delivery to the allies.
A small quantity of supplies was also left there by the Germans. Smith indicate that while foodstuffs are limited as to variety, there is apparently enough to meet the needs of the people. Prices, however, are very high.

Americans to Rule Sternly General Pershing's reassurance has gone far to alleviate anxiety that even the phlegmatic inhabitants fail to conceal. It is understood the Americans will rule sternly, but General Pershing's proclamation says: "Law-abiding persons need have no fear."
Continuing the proclamation reads:
"The American army will not come to make war on a civilian population. All persons who, with honest submission, act peacefully and obey the rules laid down by the military authorities, will be protected in their persons, homes, religion, and property. All others will be brought within the rule, with firmness, vigor and promptness. The American army goes in strict accordance with international law and the rules and customs of war sanctioned by the civilized world. Inhabitants, on their part, must absolutely abstain in word and deed from every act of hostility or impediment of any kind, toward the American forces."

"It is your duty now to devote yourselves to the orderly and obedient conduct of your private lives and affairs the re-establishment of normal conditions in schools, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions and the resumption of your local civil life."
"You will be unobstructed, but on the contrary, will be encouraged and protected in those pursuits. So far as your attitude and conduct make it possible, local courts, governing bodies and institutions will be continued in operation under supervision of American authorities. Except where they affect the rights and security of the American army, your present laws and regulations will remain undisturbed and in force. Every violation of the laws of war, every act offering hostility or violence and every disobedience of the rules laid down by military authorities will be punished with the utmost vigor."

HAND BADLY CRUSHED
George Maloney of 164 School street, employed at the Dodge Machine Co. in Payne street, had his right hand badly crushed this morning when it was caught in a pulley while at his work. The ambulance was summoned and the injured man was removed to the Lowell Corporation hospital.

WOMAN WORKER

Physical Expert Says Woman Fit for Any Job

Thousands of women eager to enter the industrial field have been apprehensive because they felt that woman's physical nature debarrd her from the more arduous forms of toil. Many of those already at work have not taken it sufficiently into account. This important question is here expertly discussed by Dr. Lela Beebe, head of hygiene department, Mills college, Cal. Dr. Beebe says:

Food—that commonplace about which too few people take intelligent thought—is one of the vital factors in the health and success of the woman in industry.

With proper food and reasonable intelligence there is no reason why woman should not safely engage in any kind of toil.

And for such women who are working hard I suggest the following sample regimen, to be varied somewhat according to individual appetite:

Breakfast: Cereal with plenty of milk, fruit, chocolate or coffee; eggs or meat if desired.

Luncheon: Some kind of meat or milk soup or eggs, and bread.

Dinner: Meat or some meat substitute; potatoes; a green vegetable; some kind of easily digested sweet, and bread.

In going into industry, a woman should always remember that she has no right to impair her health and make herself unfit for the job which is the greatest of all—wifehood and motherhood.

Few women are able to bear the strain of work requiring heavy lifting or excessive nerve tax. Aside from that, woman stands the ordinary kind of work just as well as a man.

Having selected the job, the first thing is to see that she works a reasonable number of hours. Eight hours may be considered a fair maximum.

The next thing is to sleep enough.

Many illnesses spring directly from extreme fatigue. While eight hours is considered an average night's sleep, some women require less and some women more, depending upon the work and the physique.

A good gauge is this: If you feel a persistent weariness you are not getting enough sleep.

Plenty of fresh air in the sleeping chamber is a vital necessity. Make your sleeping room as near like outdoors as possible. In your place of work, too, sunshine and fresh air are essential.

Diet of course must vary somewhat with the work done.

The woman who is on her feet all day, stooping and straining, needs much energy-giving food. The one who sits all day does not require so much.

In general, pastries and rich fried foods are not good for any worker. Sweets taken in a wholesome way and in moderation, are excellent and necessary.

A safe guide is never to get up from a meal feeling stuffy. In fact, the woman who sits most of the day should leave the table feeling a little hungry.

One who gains or loses flesh rapidly is not eating properly and needs a change in diet.

Women in industry should fit their clothes to their work. Those who work outside all day should wear comfortable, low-heeled shoes. Those who work inside, in warmth, should take care to put on sufficient wraps to insure against cold and dampness when going out. Clothes may be pretty and becoming, but they should be useful as well.

By all means take a daily bath. Keep clean outside and inside. Care for the teeth. And keep the digestive system in order.

Unwillingly I see a physician at once. There is no economy so expensive for the working woman as neglect of her health.

With these suggestions to be applied or elaborated with common sense, industrial work should not harm any woman. On the contrary, it should make her a stronger as well as better woman, wife and mother.

A fox ran unconcernedly along the sidewalk of a street in Millinocket, Me., apparently interested in seeing something of the town before blinking to the forest.

POLICE COURT DOCKET

James Koulsibiras, Charged With Larceny of $880, Is Held for Superior Court

"Another case of a false friend" was the manner in which Judge Enright summed up the case of James Koulsibiras who was charged in police court this morning with the larceny of $880 from Stefan Kotsagias last October. The complainant testified that while his wife, his child and himself lay at death's door in the hospital during the recent influenza epidemic, the defendant managed to obtain possession of the above sum, which he, the plaintiff, had taken to the hospital with him, and which was to be used to pay the expenses of his funeral in case he died, and provide for the wife and child. He stated that when to his surprise he found that he was not going to die, and became well enough to be discharged from the hospital, he looked up James and asked for an accounting. Defendant, however, had spent a good share of the money, and was able to make restitution only to the extent of $238.

The defendant testified that he had spent some of the money on Mrs. Kotsagias' funeral (she having died at the hospital in the interim) and had also spent some towards paying the expenses of the child. It was also testified that the plaintiff, when he thought he was dying, had made out an order for the money at the time, and that this was how the defendant had come into possession of it. Probable cause was found by the court, and he was ordered in the sum of $500 for the superior court.

Joseph S. Broule pleaded guilty to the larceny in the past few weeks of 429 bottles of tonic from the Chelmsford Ginger Ale Co. Peter Vlahos was charged in this connection with having acted as a receiver for this stolen property, and entered a plea of not guilty.

Broule, who is 17 years old and an employee of the company, stated that he had been bringing cases of tonic to Vlahos' store on Middlesex street and had been selling them to him at the rate of $1.25 a case, whereas the regular market price is $2.05. He also stated that Vlahos knew that the property had been stolen. Officials of the company who were present at the trial stated that Vlahos had received at least $102 worth of the stolen property, and as Vlahos expressed a willingness to make restitution, the case was continued until tomorrow to allow him to do so. Broule received a suspended sentence to the Massachusetts reformatory and was placed on probation for one year.

John Courtenay, whose present residence is in Fitchburg, pleaded guilty to the charge of unlawfully removing baggage from the boarding house of Marzani, Queen at 18 Broadway on the 14th of November. The sum which he owed her at that time was $34, and he agreed to make full restitution of the amount. The case was continued to Dec. 20, in order to see if he will make good.

Joseph McCarthy and Frank Donahue were charged with drunkenness and the arresting officer testified that after seeing them in a local restaurant yesterday they refused to get up. The pair testified that they had gone into the restaurant at another party's invitation, but that the man had left the place during the meal. McCarthy was fined $5 and Donahue $10.

HOSPITAL SHIP IN GALE

Vessel With 401 Wounded
American Soldiers Delayed
by Heavy Storm

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The army authorities here announced today that they had been unable to get in touch by wireless with the United States hospital ship Comfort since yesterday afternoon. The last wireless message received from the vessel which is returning from Europe with American wounded troops, reported she was delayed by a heavy storm but was not in distress.

It is believed by the military authorities that the Comfort's wireless apparatus may have been put out of commission by the storm. Army officers emphasized that other incoming vessels had been similarly delayed by storm conditions. Many ships are passing eastward and westward along the coast which the Comfort was taking when last heard from. If the hospital ship had been in distress, she would have been able to signal at least one of these vessels, which in turn presumably would have reported the fact by wireless. There are 101 wounded soldiers aboard.

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE IN SO. AMERICA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—An earthquake of great intensity, approximately 2500 miles south of Washington, was recorded early today on the seismograph at the Georgetown university. The shocks, beginning at 2:45 o'clock and continuing one hour, were so severe that at one minute after 4 o'clock the needles were dislodged from the machine.

There was another sharp shock at 7:32 o'clock. It was thought at the observatory that the disturbances was in South America.

Letters From Lowell Soldiers

Jack O'Dea, the well known Lowell boy, who has been serving overseas with the 26th Infantry, has written the following interesting letter to George Grady:

Oct. 24, 1918.
Dear Friend George:—Just received your ever welcome letter and was sure glad to hear from you and to know that you are O. K. as I am just at present. Well, George, these days we are kept very busy and sometimes it is hard to get a chance to write. I have just one of the real pleasures that a fellow has in this game is when he gets a letter from home. Because it makes him feel that the folks back home have not forgotten the boys who came over here a long time ago. Many of the poor boys who came over here the same time I did are now gone and it seems tough at times as you meet an old friend today and tomorrow you learn he has gone. But in this game you get used to it for that's what war means. Somebody has to pay and if you are lucky you don't.

Today, George, we are located in what is probably one of the worst sections on the whole front, one that has seen some real hard struggles. Everything is in ruins, many buildings standing and even the trees have died. I am sitting in a dugout writing you these few lines and just over the side of a hill the boys are struggling along on their way to Berlin. In the sky the airplanes are flying around firing shots at the artillery, etc. Anti-aircraft guns are banging away at those machines, trying to come over our lines. Everything that goes with the game of war is here. It is hard for a fellow to get his mind away from it except when he gets a few lines from somebody back home.

For the last week or so, the weather has been bad, but yesterday and today the old sun is shining, and of course that makes us feel good, for when it rains we are ankle deep in mud and the roads are bad. I would say about everything is bad but sometimes I think it won't be long before it is all over and those who have been lucky will be on their way back home again.

In your last letter you asked about some of the boys. I will be on the look out for them and if I can see them I shall give them your regards. I don't know of anything else I can write this time only I am in hopes to find you and the rest of the old boys back home. I was very sorry to hear that Joe Butler and my old friend Dan Mooney had died. Well, with best regards, I shall close.

Sincerely, JACK O'DEA.

FRANCE AND U.S. AGREED

That Bodies of American Soldiers Should Remain in France Until After War

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The decision of the war department that the bodies of American soldiers who lost their lives in France should remain buried in that country until after the end of the war was reached in agreement with the government of France. This is disclosed in the annual report of Major General Harris, adjutant general, made public today.

It was because of this agreement, the report says, that relatives are informed of the place of burial of soldiers in France whenever this information is obtainable.

The report reveals that the fingerprint identification system served to identify 33 of the men lost with the Tuscania who would otherwise have been buried among the unknown dead; and also enabled the department to sift out 543 cases of fraudulent enlistment.

The report shows also 5007 enemy aliens were in custody as prisoners of war or under internment in this country. Of these 141 were prisoners of war, including the crews of German auxiliary craft, seized at the outbreak of the war. No prisoners taken by the army in France have been brought to the United States.

During the period covered by the report, 11 prisoners died and 14 interned aliens were paroled by the department of justice. Twenty-nine cases of whom 16 were recaptured and two drowned.

15,000 PAPER WORKERS RETURN TO WORK

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., Dec. 6.—Shortly after the strike of 15,000 union employees of newspaper mills in New York and New England went into effect this morning, T. J. Carey, president of the International Brotherhood of Papermakers, sent the men a message instructing them to keep the mills running and notifying them that the war labor board would soon render a decision regarding the wage controversy which precipitated the strike.

As the result of this message arrangements were made to resume operations at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the mills in this city and adjacent towns, employing 3000 men.

Correlation as Empire
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—J. Harry Covington, former chief justice of the District of Columbia court, was named today by the war labor board as umpire in the case of paper mill employees in New England and New York.

Keep Mills Running
HERLIN, N. H., Dec. 6.—Acting on instructions from J. T. Carey, president of the International Brotherhood of Paper Workers, employees of the Glen mill of the International Paper Co. reported for work as usual today. The men met after the closing of the mill yesterday and remained in session throughout the night, awaiting word from President Carey. About 2 a. m., a telegram was received reading: "War labor board has matter under consideration. Keep mill running until further advised." Secretary Arthur Belandier at once communicated with Superintendent James Murray and notified him that the men would report for work today. Nearly 500 men are employed at the local plant.

Officials of the union here explained that they had been assured that they would receive the war bonus, the alleged discontinuance of which resulted in a strike in many of the company's mills.

NO U. S. WARSHIPS ORDERED TO PERU
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—It was stated officially at the state and navy departments today that no American warships were on their way to Peru and that none had been ordered there. A report from Lima yesterday said several American cruisers were expected to arrive in a few days from San Francisco.

MISS DEVINE HONORED BY LOWELL TEACHERS

Miss Mary P. Devine, well known as the former president of the Lowell Teachers' organization and active in many phases of school work, was presented a substantial gift by the members of the organization at a recent meeting and also elected an honorary member as a token of the appreciation and esteem in which she was held by the members of her profession.

Miss Devine for a number of years had taught in the Weed Street school.

MISS MARY P. DEVINE

but last summer entered the employ of the Saco-Lowell shops to undertake essential government work. She was given an opportunity to direct and develop one of the most important phases of the company's activities and had a large number of women under her supervision.

With the approach of September, Miss Devine asked for a leave of absence from her position as a teacher, inasmuch as her work with the Saco-Lowell Co. had developed to an unexpected extent. The request was not granted, however, and Miss Devine tendered her resignation. Later she resigned as president of the Teachers' organization and their recent action was a subsequent tribute.

FOR PEACE CONFERENCE

Present Plans Call for Opening Session About Jan. 15 —To Close in April

PARIS, Dec. 6.—(Havas)—The inter-allied conference at Paris to deal with the peace preliminaries will open on Dec. 17, according to the Echo de Paris. The session, it is thought, will end about Jan. 15, when the preliminary session of the peace conference will begin, with the admission of the German plenipotentiaries. The probability that the conference may finish its labors at the end of April or at the beginning of May is indicated, according to this journal.

MILLS NOT TO CLOSE FOR READJUSTMENT

Although the mills of the American Woolen Co. in Lawrence closed yesterday for the remainder of the week for a general readjustment from war to peace conditions, the plant of the company in Collinsville, known as the Beaver Brook mill, is still in operation and no closing orders have been received there.

Agent Albert D. Milliken of the Hamilton mill, when asked this morning by a Sun reporter if it was the intent of the cotton mills to close for the purpose of readjustment answered in the negative. He said the cotton mills are not like the woolen industry for they can change over from government to general work in very brief notice, so no shut down is anticipated in this city.

JOHN FREDERICKSON OF WORCESTER DRIVES AUTO NINE YEARS WITHOUT LICENSE

WORCESTER, Dec. 6.—John F. Frederickson of 380 Millbury street has the unusual distinction, according to his own statement, of driving an automobile in Massachusetts for the past nine years without having a license to operate a machine.

He became involved in a minor accident yesterday and when asked by Police Agent Daniel A. McNeill to show his license to drive a car he informed the officer he has never had a license, although he has been driving a car since 1909. He was ordered to appear in district court today.

Marcel Legrand, French aviator, made record flight, carrying 11 passengers an hour and a quarter at height of 1245 meters.

26TH DIVISION MAY STAY UNTIL PEACE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Sec. Baker gave it as his personal opinion yesterday that none of the veteran divisions of the American army in France would return home before peace formally was declared. He indicated that the tried fighting men would compose the bulk of the force to be kept in Europe for the present.

Heretofore the understanding has been that the Yankee (26th), Rainbow and two or three other famous divisions would be brought home soon, leaving their places to be filled by some of the newcomers.

Several of the divisions which have seen much hard fighting are assigned to the American Army of Occupation which is marching into Germany. Army officers say that it was necessary to make up this army of tried troops because there was no saying what might happen.

Recent despatches from France have said that an American army of 4,250,000 men are to remain in France until after the proclamation of peace, and some veteran divisions in addition to those now marching into Germany probably will be included in that force.

THE GERMAN DICTATOR

Ernst Daumig Is Responsible for Germany's Present Policy

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The man who more than any other person is responsible for Germany's present policy is Ernst Daumig, according to the Berlin correspondent of the Daily Express. Until 1916, he was a member of the staff of the Socialist Vorwaerts of Berlin. Later he was secretary of the Independent socialists. He is now president of the national council and dictates to the six commissioners who form the government.

Daumig told the correspondent that the peace delegates would be selected by the present cabinet which undoubtedly would remain in power until the meeting of the national assembly.

He declared the government's intention to get rid of all persons belonging to the old regime. Dr. Solf, the foreign secretary, would be replaced by a man who had taken no part in politics during the war, he said.

The strength of the new German army, he said, would be decided at the peace conference. He did not think Germany would need much of an army or navy. The Germans, he said, were totally opposed to militarism and wished to live in peaceful understanding with other nations.

REBUILDING OF FRANCE

Ten Billions of Dollars Are Needed Quickly—Labor Problem Is Serious

BY LIEUT. M. BOYER.

In Charge of Reconstruction for the French High Commission in Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 5.—The restoration of northern France will be accomplished, thanks to the energy of our population and to the aid that America has given and is ready to give.

French losses in men amount to 2,500,000; part killed, part maimed; some returned sick and incapacitated from German prison camps. Fifteen per cent of our people are missing at the very time we need all our material and moral forces to rebuild our life.

Devastated Regions

French war expenses, more than $20,000,000,000, are weighing heavily on our shoulders. To pay off this debt, there are at hand only such limited resources as invasion has left us.

The territories which have been under German occupation for four years were the wealthiest part of France. This area did not exceed six per cent of the whole country. It paid, however, 25 per cent of the total of our taxes.

These territories are in an appalling state of ruin. The ground for months, maybe for years, will be unfit for production. The fruit trees have been cut down to the level of the ground, systematically struck dead by the invaders.

Three hundred and fifty thousand homes have been destroyed. To build them up again, 500,000,000 days of work will be necessary, involving an outlay of more than $2,000,000,000.

In personal property, other destroyed by battle or stolen by the Germans, there stands an additional loss of at least $800,000,000. This valuation does not include the countless war contributions and fines by the enemy, amounting to billions.

Of course, in those wealthy lands, no agricultural resources are left. The losses in horses and in cattle amount to 1,500,000 head; in agricultural equipment, to 450,000 machines or carts; the two items worth together more than $1,200,000,000.

To our industries, disaster is even more complete. These districts were the backbone of our production, as shown in the following figures:

In 1913, the wool output of our invaded districts amounted to 51 per cent of the entire French production; lax, 50 per cent; iron ore, 50 per cent; pig iron, 52 per cent; steel, 70 per cent; sugar, 70 per cent; cotton, 60 per cent; coal, 55 per cent; electric power, 45 per cent.

Of all that, plants, machinery, mines, nothing is left. So complete is the destruction—that, in the case of our great coal mines in the north, two years of work will be needed before a single ton of coal can be extracted and ten years before the output is brought back to the figures of 1913.

Billions of Dollars Needed

All that must be rebuilt, and to carry out that kind of reconstruction only, there will be need of over 2,000,000 tons of pig iron, nearly 4,000,000 tons of steel, not to mention the replenishing of stocks and of raw materials.

These industrial items reach a total of $5,000,000,000. But, to rebuild these mills and factories, raw materials are not sufficient. We need means of transportation, and the Germans have here, too, carried out their scheme of utter destruction.

For our merchant fleet we want another half a billion dollars. This makes, if I sum up, a need of raw material which represents in cost, at the present rate of prices in France, not less than $10,000,000,000, and I have not taken into account a great many other losses.

We will require American financial help, the assurance of which will bring to everyone in France the courage and faith necessary to apply to peace reconstruction the energy and the spirit of enterprise so prominently shown during the war.

For our agriculture, for our industries, for our highways, for our railroads, we need, as well, raw materials and machine tools to be delivered as speedily as possible.

We will exact from Germany the restitution of such material taken away from us as can be recovered.

There is still with us an immediate all-important need, the supply of which is the necessary condition of everything else; we need ships. The speedy reconstruction of the country is strictly depending on the revival of our mercantile fleet.

LONDON, England.—Having spent two weeks around London, I wish to speak a personal word that may bring considerable comfort to fathers and mothers and friends at home who are anxious about the physical and moral well-being of our American boys.

In view of certain statements which have been flung far and wide I was led to anticipate very dangerous conditions. My duties have compelled me to be on the streets constantly by day and by night. My uniform is that of an American Red Cross officer, with nothing to differentiate me from other army officers, or to indicate that I am a minister of the gospel.

I have seen Piccadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, Oxford Circus and numerous other centers of London under all kinds of circumstances. Of course I have seen intoxicated persons, not many of them, and not one drunken soldier, either British or American. In the whole of two weeks, neither have I been solicited by any street walker, nor has any young woman spoken to me in any way that was at all suggestive of impropriety.

It would be folly to deny the existence of drunkenness and vice in London. It can be found here and in all great cities by those who are seeking for it.

But vice is not flaunting itself in London, and the town is full of places of amusement for soldiers, where good clean recreation is afforded during any hour of the day and late into the night.

London is not "bad" today, so far as I can see, any more than any great American city is bad.

The word humbug is of Irish origin, and means soft copper or worthless money. It was originally applied to the money issued by James II at the Dublin mint. It was made of lead, copper, brass, pewter or any metal he found available, and soon became known among the people as humbug, or humbug.

Such Women Just Have to "Give Up"

"Man may work from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done." That's why women are overworked, nervous, all run down, no appetite, and can "hardly drag around." "I was all run-down, back ached, and tired all the time. I keep house for my husband and four children and could hardly keep around. Finally I tried Vinol and it has restored my health and helped me wonderfully, so I recommend it to others who are in this condition." Mrs. Hannah Randall.

Jacksonville, Ill.
"I keep house for my little family, but got into a weak, nervous, run-down condition, tired all the time and no ambition. My doctor told me to try Vinol, and in a week I felt like a new person. I am now strong again, look after my baby, and do all my housework."—Mrs. G. H. Lamson.

For all run-down, nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.

SPANISH INFLUENZA MORE DEADLY THAN WAR

Said That Epidemic Cost More Lives Than American Loss in Battle.

Danger Not Over. Great Care Necessary to Prevent Further Outbreak

The appalling ravages of Spanish influenza in this country are perhaps best realized by the statement recently made that more deaths have resulted in little more than a month from this disease than through our whole eighteen months' participation in the battles of the European War.

Our greatest danger now, declare authorities, is the great American tendency to forget easily and to believe the peril is over. Competent authorities claim the coming of cold weather is very apt to bring a return of this disease and there should be no let-up throughout the winter months of the following easily observed precautions, remembering that influenza is far easier to prevent than cure.

Influenza is a crowd disease. Avoid crowds as much as possible. Influenza germs spread when ignorant or careless persons sneeze or cough without using a handkerchief. Cover up each cough or sneeze. Do not spit on the floor, sidewalk, in street cars or public places. Avoid the use of common drinking cups and roller towels in public places. Breathe some reliable germicidal and antiseptic air to destroy the germs that do find lodgment in your nose and throat.

Remember that precaution against influenza could be employed in this manner than to get from the nearest drug store a complete Hyomei outfit consisting of a bottle of the Pure oil of Hyomei and a little vest-pocket hard rubber inhaling device, into which a few drops of the oil are poured. You should carry this inhaler about with you during the day and each half hour or so put it in your mouth and draw deep breaths of its pure, healing germ-killing air into the passages of your nose, throat and lungs.

By destroying germs before they actually begin work in your blood, you may make yourself practically immune to infection.

All these suggestions about Spanish influenza are equally true in the prevention of colds, catarrh of nose and throat, bronchitis and even pneumonia, both become careless. Do your part. Keep the germs away. You may save yourself a serious illness and the loss of several weeks' work.—Adv.

ANNUAL PARISH REUNION

Good Cheer at First Universalist Church—Rev. Dr. Fisher Congratulated

The annual parish reunion and supper was held last night at the First Universalist church, at which time the celebration of the pastorate of Rev. C. E. Fisher, D. D., took place. Representatives of other churches were also present at the banquet to participate in the festivities of the occasion.

An excellent supper was served by the women of the parish, and a special musical program was carried out by Hubbard's orchestra. Dr. Alexander S. Macleod made a few introductory remarks, stating that owing to the long list of speakers, each man would be allowed ten minutes and at the close of the evening it was noted that this program was carried out very well.

Rev. J. M. Craig, D.D., was the first speaker and dwelt on the great issues to be settled at the peace conference, emphasizing the point that the guidance in all such important matters must come from divine counsel.

A short address was then given by Rev. Chauncey J. Hawkins regarding church unity.

Words of appreciation were tendered the host of the occasion, Rev. C. E. Fisher, D.D., by Rev. E. E. Sykes, D.D., of Malden.

Mayor Thompson was introduced and congratulated Dr. Fisher, stating that he believed the pastor's long stay in one pastorate in the city was due to his genial personality and his ability to seek and cement always on the good points of everyone.

A few words for thought were quoted by Rev. A. R. Dills, when he said "A little more deed and a little less creed," etc.

Rev. John L. Cairns of St. Paul's M. E. church spoke on the friendliness of the church across the war, toward his own congregation, and how it had opened its doors to the people of St. Paul's after the fire.

Reminiscences and friendly associations with the host of the evening were discussed by Rev. A. R. Huser, who closed his remarks with congratulations to the church in having so good and able a minister.

Rev. Appleton Grantham also spoke in a congratulatory vein.

The meeting closed with a few words of thanks from Dr. Fisher.

Between the addresses there was

WILL OF PHILIP TUMULTY

Estate of Father of Wilson's Secretary Totals Several Hundred Thousand Dollars

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 6.—The will of Philip Tumulty, father of Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, was probated here yesterday. It provides that the bulk of the property shall not be divided until Miss Esther Tumulty, 29 years old, daughter by a second marriage, is 35 years old, when her four half-brothers will share the estate equally with her. The five children of Joseph P. Tumulty are each bequeathed $10,000.

The will, signed June 24, 1911, disposes of an estate estimated at several hundred thousand dollars. Sec. Tumulty and his brother Philip are the executors.

TO BRING BUSINESS BACK TO NORMAL

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 6.—Before the reconstruction congress adjourns today it will approve suggestions for bringing business and industry back to normal. Resolutions passed by the industrial and business groups meeting here this week, were sent for consideration to a clearance committee made up of the following members: Chairman Joseph H. DeForest, Chicago; food, Lewis B. Pierson, Chicago; heat, light and power, E. W. Rice, Jr., New York; iron and steel, John W. O'Leary, Chicago; metals, not iron and steel, Eugene Meyer, New York; textiles, Charles Cheney, Manchester, Conn.; wood, John H. Kirby, Houston, Tex.; chemicals, Dr. William H. Nichols, New York; leather, August H. Vogel, Milwaukee; eastern products, N. E. Carson, Riverton, Va.; industrial professions, Charles A. Stone, New York; at large, R. G. Rhett, Charleston, S. C.; Charles Nagel, St. Louis; C. S. Trantingham, Rockford, Ill.

As most of the groups adopted resolutions urging modification of the Sherman anti-trust law, a recommendation to that effect is expected.

There is some talk that the congress may decide to send a commission representing business and industry to France to be near in the event that President Wilson should feel that he needs advice on economic conditions in the United States.

ALLIES KEPT TABS ON ALL HUN U-BOATS

LONDON, Nov. 27 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Allied methods of gaining information about the movement of submarines during the war never will be divulged fully, but the accuracy of the daily reports has proved one of the surprising features of the war. Few submarines left their bases unknown to the allied fleet commanders. In addition, the numbers of the vessels, the duration of their cruises and the locality in which they were ordered to operate were known in nearly every case.

Such information usually was known within a day of the time the submarine left. It was transmitted to allied wireless stations which had means of checking it up to a certain extent. Wireless operators at sea and ashore heard the submarines reporting in code to Germany every night and their positions were learned by a system of reckoning the wave length. This was done so accurately that the submarine could be definitely located, as close as a mile.

SOUTHERN BADEN IS SEEKING INCORPORATION IN SWITZERLAND

LONDON, Dec. 6.—Southern Baden is seeking incorporation in Switzerland, according to Baden newspapers, says a Copenhagen dispatch to the Daily Telegraph.

Baden is east of the Rhine. The famous Black forest occupies a large part of southern Baden.

The largest book in the world—12 feet high, 8 feet wide and 3 feet thick—stands in the public square in Ottawa, Can. It was made and bound by the Canadian government printing bureau at Ottawa, and contains the names of all the contributors to the Victory loan.

NEWBURYPORT PRESBYTERY

An adjourned regular meeting of the Newburyport Presbytery was held yesterday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church, followed by supper and a war address later in the evening by Rev. Samuel Dupertuis, pastor of the Methodist church in Milford, Mass., and a recently returned Red Triangle secretary. A great deal of business was transacted and action taken on several important matters.

At this evening meeting there were brief remarks from Rev. Mr. Paterson, Rev. Mr. Laird and Rev. Mr. Crossland.

and after Miss Ethel Harris had rendered the solos, the rest of the evening was given over to the address by Rev. Mr. Dupertuis.

He stated that he had been in France about a year, returning in October of the present year, and expects to make the trip again soon. He spoke particularly of a 150 mile trip to be made over the battle line, going from Compiègne in the west to Nancy in the east, and covering such points as Chalons, Soissons, Rheims and Verdun. His work was principally at the big base camp of the United States army ambulance service.

It is proposed that with the close of the war the entire line of trenches in France, extending from Alsace to the Belgian border, shall be converted into a sort of national sacred forest as a permanent tribute to the memory of the soldiers who died facing the onslaught of the Huns.

The Observant Lady

A rather sort of woman, who lives in the vicinity of the railroad station, told me the other afternoon that she had sent her daughter down town to purchase a few articles of warm clothing for some children who had been playing out in the streets, poorly dressed, in fact, so destitute in appearance that they were actually cold on some of the cool fall days. Her own children are grownup, so that she was unable to donate any wearing apparel to the small tots on the street. Upon inquiring from other children she learned that the parents were not visited by sickness or any apparent hardship, and that the father was steadily employed. I took it for granted that this was an exceptional case of carelessness until I visited a man in a business office, who has been actively engaged in government work during the past year or two, and he related another instance of the same nature. He stated that while driving through one of Lowell's busy streets, he noticed a small boy who was very inadequately clothed. He immediately brought his car to a stop and seating the youngster beside him, drove to one of the large department stores. After the boy had been fitted out with a complete set of new and warm clothing, he requested the clerk to throw the old garments in the ash barrel, and walked out of the store with a happy companion. He had expected to learn that the father was an invalid or some such pitiful story but, on the contrary, the father was employed in the Cartridge factory, earning $20 a week.

Mr. Hoover issues another circular letter, urging economy and conservation in food, and I am inclined to think we all take to it more kindly than we did the request sent out at the beginning of the war. Although we have undergone a very few sacrifices, as regards some of the choice ingredients which go to make up a very tempting and favorite dish, still they have been very small ones, in comparison with those some of the people in the European countries were making. Perhaps we will all be more ready to respond to the call for conservation, not alone because we are keenly aware of the great task which confronts our nation in sending foodstuffs across the water, but from the fact that we understand the program which was so much needed and which proved so successful, especially in saving wheat and meat for our soldiers.

I'm mighty glad there's a booth surrounding the telephone in such places as stores and public buildings, because if there were not I have an idea that the innocent and unsuspecting public would be forced to carry cotton around with them to shut out some of the grumblings which would fall upon their ears. I was very thankful that no one was in the immediate vicinity of where I was telephoning the other evening, for after having deposited a thoroughly good, buffalo nickel, I was unjustly accused of procrastinating, or rather, I was requested again and again to drop a nickel in the box. Three or four years ago I might have complied, but since I have learned the value of money, and how every little bit helped toward even such a goal as the winning of the war, I could not depart from my custom of avoiding wasteful habits, so I turned a deaf ear to all the arguments of the invisible one, and hung up the receiver and waited for circumstances to develop. Nothing happened.

From the very attractive showing of holiday gifts in the store windows, it is an easy matter to select our Christmas presents early, as we are urged to do, in order that the clerks may not be overburdened with extra work. I think we can purchase just as satisfactorily now, as to delay and thus we will be doing our share towards avoiding the so-called "Christmas rush."

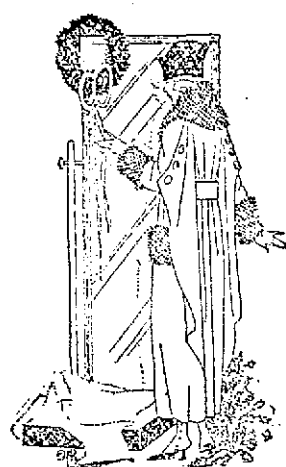

The rest room at the Industrial War Service centre is one of the prettiest spots to be found anywhere in the city. The girls have every reason to be proud of the club now, and also, I should say that the men in uniform are fortunate in being given the opportunity to visit here every Saturday evening. The dance hall is a well appointed one, and in fact, all the surroundings are so very pleasant as to guarantee an enjoyable evening for the boys who would otherwise spend their holiday hours in a more or less lonely manner. I understand that the girls would gladly accept any contributions to their supply of dishes, as they expect to prepare lunches once in a while, and they will need cups and saucers for hot drinks.

I heard one of the women in charge of the yarn department at the Red Cross rooms make the remark: "There is still a need for volunteer workers to take knitting home, such as socks and sweaters." When I reached home I decided I'd postpone all Christmas sewing until next winter.

BRAVES STORM TO AID SCHOONER TO DISTRESS

CHATHAM, Dec. 6.—Roger Cuthbert, keeper of the Monomoy coast guard station with five men put out in a power boat today in the midst of a blinding snow storm to go to the aid of a two-masted schooner in distress off Kilpond bars. They had a hard seven-mile trip across Chatham bay ahead of them with a 35 mile north wind blowing, and other guardsmen said it was doubtful if the keeper would attempt the return trip before tomorrow.

The schooner, believed to be a fisherman, was sighted from the lookout on the Monomoy station about noon, just before the snow storm set in. It had been hazy most of the forenoon and the vessel was seen indistinctly when the sky lighted up for a brief period. The lookout was unable to determine whether the schooner was aground, but he made out the signal of distress in her rigging.

POLICE WORK DURING WAR

Attorney General Gregory Reports on Work of Department of Justice

Enemy Agents Caught, Slack-ers Apprehended, Explosions Prevented, Etc.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The story of how enemy agents have been caught, disloyalty suppressed, draft slackers apprehended, dangerous Germans interned, explosions and other sabotage prevented, and enemy secrets ferreted out for use against their armies abroad, was given to the public today in Attorney General T. W. Gregory's annual report. Through a great corps of department of justice civil officers, secret agents, and citizen volunteers, this big job of policing has been accomplished, said the attorney general, with a minimum disturbance to the normal life of communities, and with constant effort to avoid encroaching on freedom of speech, action and political criticism.

Referring to enforcement of the espionage act, Mr. Gregory said:

"This department throughout the war has proceeded upon the general principle that the constitutional right of free speech, free assembly, and petition exist in war time as in peace time, and that the right of discussion of governmental policy and the right of political agitation are the most fundamental rights in a democracy."

At the same time, the attorney general explained, the department has tried to deal severely with propaganda having for a deliberate purpose the disintegration of the country's war strength.

"One of the distinct achievements of the American people," he said, "has been the maintenance of order, the comparative failure of enemy activities and, speaking broadly, the general self-control and self-restraint exhibited throughout the country in critical situations."

6000 Enemy Aliens Arrested

The attorney general disclosed that only 6000 enemy aliens have been arrested on presidential warrants and examined with a view to internment and that "a considerable number" of these have been placed in internment camps administered by the army. The balance were paroled. Most enemies interned were German men, and there were comparatively few German women or Austro-Hungarians. About 480,000 Germans have been registered in the nation-wide census—260,000 men and 220,000 women.

Up to last July 1, department of justice investigators had rounded up 33,439 young men who sought to escape the draft, and had caused their induction into the service. More than 220,000 cases of men who for some reason or other had failed to file questionnaires or to appear for physical examination were investigated.

Looking forward to peace conditions, the attorney general makes a number of recommendations for reform of judicial processes. Although he referred to the difficulty of pushing anti-trust prosecutions during the war since the government itself has been in the business of suppressing competition, he made no suggestions for new anti-trust legislation which congress is expected to undertake soon.

Country Thoroughly Policed

War activities claimed the principal portions of the report, and after referring to the growth of the department's secret service to six times its size in 1918, and the efficient organization of the American Protective League of 250,000 citizen volunteers, Mr. Gregory said:

"It is safe to say that never in its history has this country been so thoroughly policed as at the present time. When it becomes possible, through the lapse of time, to disclose fully the activities of these various secret services, their work will stand out as one of the substantial achievements of the war."

Hints of an American espionage system were given in the statement that the secret services "have given protection not only to the civilian population but to the armed forces, and some of their activities have also resulted in direct damage to the enemy forces abroad."

Great stress was laid on the sufficiency of normal civil processes "and the needlessness of attempting to invoke the use of military tribunals in this country."

"It has been the view of this department," the attorney general said, "that every act of arbitrary and unnecessary interference with the life, habits, and occupation of the citizen, would lessen efficiency, disturb order,

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Vegetable Compound.

Key West, Fla.—"For five years I suffered from irregularities, with terrible pains and an awful weakness in my back. The doctor gave me different medicines but they did me no good. A friend asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I found it to be the best medicine I ever tried because it made me well, and I can now do my housework. I am telling my friends about it."

—Mrs. J. M. CAMUS, 726 Caroline St., Key West, Florida.

Many women at some period in their life suffer from ailments peculiar to their sex and which in most cases may be readily relieved by this famous root and herb medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, just as Mrs. Camus found it helped her after suffering for years and trying everything else in vain.

and weaken public confidence in the American standards of justice." He added that he had emphasized this view on other government departments, resulting "on a number of occasions in preventing encroachments upon the jurisdiction of the civil tribunals of the country."

This was considered significant in view of the United States ability to maintain the normal functioning of ordinary government machinery to a much greater extent than other belligerents.

Good Order Maintained

The government's internment policy also has been more lenient than that of England and France, the attorney general stated, and the efficacy of the methods and principles are evidenced by the good order generally maintained.

"Systematic disloyal propaganda became a failure during the first year of the war," he said. "Shortly after our entry into the war this propaganda supported chiefly by those influences and organizations which had opposed the declaration of war, manifested itself in distinct opposition to the adoption, and operation of the selective service act, but this type of propaganda was almost immediately suppressed and destroyed. It was followed by manifestations of propaganda of an economic and social character, clearly supported in the main, by sympathizers with the enemy powers. This general type of propaganda reached its height in the autumn of 1917, but gained no great headway and was declining by January 1, 1918. Various other types of propaganda have appeared sporadically but none of them have gained any substantial footing, and it may be fairly said that prior to July 1, 1918, the effort of German sympathizers in the field of disloyal propaganda had almost completely failed."

Propaganda Suppressed

The department has been hampered in suppressing propaganda, said the attorney general, by "self-appointed committees or associations of citizens who, ignorant of or dissatisfied with the scope of the federal laws, or jurisdiction, have sought to supplement them by extra-legal measures of intimidation and punishment." Another hampering influence was the dissemination of hundreds of unfounded reports relating to use of poison gas by enemy agents, ground glass in food, and damage to Red Cross supplies.

Referring to difficulties with members of the I.W.W., "pseudo-socialists," and similar bodies, the attorney general said:

"It has been the policy of this department that no person should be prosecuted or interned solely by reason of his membership in any such organization, that guilt is always personal, and that under no circumstances should any organization or body of men be prosecuted as such."

Anti-Trust Law

Less than one per cent. of the enemy aliens arrested on suspicion and later paroled have again fallen under suspicion. Of the 15,000 enemy aliens applying for permission to complete their naturalization, which was stopped on the declaration of war, reports on more than 10,000 have been furnished the naturalization authorities of the department of labor.

Discussing the enforcement of anti-trust laws, Attorney General Gregory said:

"When natural laws of trade break down, as they have done during the war in many branches of trade, direct government action with respect to price and methods of distribution may become essential in order to prevent private control of markets, for when natural laws of trade can no longer be depended upon to regulate markets, the only choice is between artificial control imposed by private interests and artificial control imposed by public agencies. In these circumstances, therefore, such direct governmental action, so far from running counter to the purpose of the Sherman act, is directly in line with it."

The attorney general said the hearing of pending anti-trust cases in the supreme court had been postponed on motion of the government because "the dissolution of these combinations would require financial operations on a large scale, which it would not be in the public interest to undertake in the present condition of the money market, brought about by the war."

Mr. Gregory's recommendations propose legislation to make a federal warrant run to any part of the United States, so that indicted individuals cannot escape trial so easily; retirement of federal judges at the age of 70 if they have served ten years or more;

legislation to make it an offense to send through the mail letters threatening life or property; tightening up of bankruptcy laws; and legislation making it possible to sue a corporation in any district in which it transacts business.

HELD ANNUAL BANQUET

Permanent Committee on Naturalization Gives Summary of Work for Year

A summary of the work of the permanent committee on naturalization for the year as given out at the annual banquet of the organization, which was held last evening at the Harrington hotel, was that during the year about 400 young men took out their first naturalization papers, while 35 became full-fledged citizens of this country. It was also announced that during the summer months a special course in naturalization was conducted under the auspices of the committee in the quarters of Club City-Americans in Middle street. The course was largely attended and the instructions given there proved of great benefit to the young men who were preparing to become voters. The report was given by the secretary, Maxime Lepine, and was listened to with great interest.

The banquet was held in one of the private rooms of the hotel and was attended by representatives of the following organizations: Club City-Americans, C.M.A.C., Centralville Social club, Pawtucketville Social club and the South Lowell Improvement association. The festivities were presided over by President Onesime Tremblay of the naturalization committee, who in a brief address thanked the members of the committee for the fine work accomplished during the year, and he urged all to concentrate their efforts during the next year for the

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Note—Below is what the press agents of the different theatres say of the current attractions and of others to come later.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Nobody should overlook a straight tip, and one of the week's best is to the effect that a vaudeville show of variety, brightness and novelty is on the tapis at the B. F. Keith theatre this week. It is, in all truth, one of the best, if not the best, of the entire season thus far. Muriel Window, the peacock singer of vaudeville, gives us a touch of the things New York likes, and Al and Fanny Stedman, in their mixture called "Pianocapers" are all to the good. "The Decorators" is a side-splitting comedy from start to finish, and Marshall Montgomery does what no other ventriloquist has ever been able to do. There are also Marvin & Duffy, premier bar performers; Dorothy & Rosamond, instrumentalists; and Brown, Libby & Conlon, fifty singers. The Armistice pictures, filmed in Paris on Nov. 11, and in England; the comedy called "Stars and Bars," and the Pathe News Pictorial are other features on this very good bill.

THE STRAND

A tremendous smash at the walls of hypocrisy which surrounds the lives of many of us is given by Theda Bara in her latest production, "When a Woman Sins," which is now being shown at the Strand. Playing the role of Poppea, a notorious wanton, Miss Bara dominates with great power and yet touching appeal the human, lovable side of a woman whose life treats the devious paths of pleasure. The woman, though men pay their wealth at her feet, continues to love a divinity student. His Puritanical training, however, will not allow him to countenance her, until at last, in despair, she is about to end her life. Then he sends his forgiveness in the form of a bunch of lilies. "Pussy Hyland in 'Marriages Are Made'" is the other big feature, while the Boston Ladies' orchestra furnishes a musical treat. Next week: "Lafayette, We Come!"

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

Have you seen it? It's the biggest and best, as well as the most novel stock offering ever produced in Lowell. "Very Good Eddie," the big musical comedy success of the recent past, presented by the Emerson All Star Players at the Lowell Opera House, is "turning them away" at every performance. Doing it, as well as a big cast, augmented by extras from Broadway, New York. Julian Noa is appearing in his funniest comedy role, and Miss Salisbury makes a sweet and lovable bride of a few hours. Just a few more seats left for the remaining performances. Order your tickets now.

Next week the big spectacular stage production of Charles Frohman, "A Messenger from Mars." It's another worth-while presentation.

At the matinee performance on Monday afternoon the management has succeeded in inducing one of Lowell's old stock favorites of last year, Edward Nannery, to call "round and exchange handshakes with the patrons. Mr. Nannery is at present in the production of "Maytime," the big Boston production that is scoring such a tremendous hit at the present time. Manager Carroll visited Mr. Nannery a few days ago and with the consent of his manager induced the former stock favorite to come to the city for an afternoon and meet his old friends. He'll be here for the afternoon only and those who wish to meet him should be on hand. No introduction is needed in presenting him. As to his general popularity, there is no question.

JUDGE FREES BAKSA
GIRL OF MURDER

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Without taking the stand in her own defense, Elizabeth Baksa, the 19-year-old Freemansburg, Penn. girl, on trial for the murder of her boarding housekeeper here, was acquitted yesterday afternoon at the direction of Judge Rosalsky.

When James Regan, Sing Sing convict, called in rebuttal by the prosecution, persisted in his story as a witness for the defense that he had killed Mrs. Helen Hamel last February, afterward threatening Miss Baksa's life when she discovered the crime, the court ruled that the evidence need not be presented to the jury.

"Thank God, they knew I was innocent," the youthful prisoner said when informed that she was free, and a storm of tears swept her as attendants led her to an anteroom. After her sobbing subsided the girl declared she would return to her Pennsylvania home, adding that "a country girl has no business in New York."

Judge Rosalsky created a most unusual situation after Miss Baksa had left the court room by asking the jury for its opinion as to what should be done with Regan, who had "confessed" to the murder of Mrs. Hamel. After a half-hour conference the jurors returned a "verdict" as follows:

"We do not believe the statements of Regan on the stand. We do not believe he was ever in the house, nor had he any connection with the murder. We believe he committed perjury."

The jurors individually ascribed Regan's action to a desire for "cheap notoriety."

Judge Rosalsky said that "something must be done" with Regan, whom he described as "a desperate man" who had been guilty of perjury. He then announced that he would confer with the district attorney concerning what action should be taken.

THE SUN'S LOCAL NEWS

In the local field The Sun leads. The collecting, assortment and display of local news in The Sun is a complete and all-inclusive process. The Sun's local news shows that its reporters are honest, industrious, skilled and foresighted, so that they can tell in advance where a good news item is likely to break.

The paper that gets the news first in the hands of the reading public is the paper the people want. This is a point of excellence in which The Sun stands unrivaled.

Neither business policy nor the ambitions of any man or group of men can work The Sun for the purpose of making it a vehicle for propaganda by distorting the local news.

Fairness, honesty, accuracy, conciseness. Here are four qualities which rule local news published in this paper. Sun readers get local news undistorted. The local news is for their information and entertainment. Local news, properly sifted, is the life of a newspaper. There is plenty of vigorous life in

THE G.O.P. CONGRESS

The present congress will go down in history as the "War Congress," and that to come into office next March will be the "Reconstruction Congress." Having a republican majority, it will undoubtedly endeavor to make a record that will appeal to the nation in the national election in 1920. Thus far, however, the republicans have been unable to bring forward any progressive policy that has not been previously adopted by the Wilson administration. Their old stand-by of the tariff has been taken out of the arena of politics and as yet they have not found another to take its place.

The needs of the nation during the reconstruction period will offer them an opportunity to put forth whatever of constructive ability they may possess; and hence their policies are anticipated with much interest. Something more than destructive criticism will be necessary to convince the nation that there is any merit in their claim of superior business ability. That claim was based upon the prosperity of the great republican trusts and combines; but these the party can never restore to a position in which as formerly, they can fix prices and wages as they please. The trusts of McKinley and Roosevelt will never again be tolerated in this country. Without them the republicans will be at sea, as it were, although the new conditions offer them many opportunities to show their business sagacity.

Already the National Voters league has put forward a program for the new congress, but one which we surmise will be let severely alone. It is as follows:

A responsible executive budget system of handling appropriations and revenue measures.

Complete elimination of personal and local legislation, with the work of congress confined strictly to matters public and national in scope.

Abolition of pork and patronage as trading elements in legislation. Curtailment of the franking and leave-to-print privileges, to do away with unfair and extravagant political abuses of these campaign devices.

Elimination of all standing committees not essential to national legislation.

More democratic organization of committees, each electing its own chairman, and selecting and using only for the public purposes its own employees.

No executive sessions for any committee of congress, excepting only foreign affairs during the period of war.

Fuller publicity at every stage of the proceedings, and every employ of both branches to be placed upon a public payroll, thus eliminating the present questionable "clerk-hire fund," which members of congress may pay out of pocket, as they please.

That does not sound much like a republican platform and yet it contains many recommendations that should be carried out. It has reference mainly to reforms in congressional methods and the republicans have just started a campaign to change the course of procedure in congress. The aim is, however, to overcome the dominance which the south has enjoyed on committee chairmanships as a result of the seniority rule.

SCHOOL GARDENS

Principal Mahoney's report upon the school garden work in connection with the Normal school, a brief extract of which appeared in The Sun of Wednesday, was quite illuminating as showing what can be done by the school children under proper direction. Principal Mahoney himself inspired the enthusiasm and his corps of able assistants did the rest. More profusely than appeared in the published report did he thank his assistants and students for their splendid co-operation and in a special manner he thanked Miss Martina Gage for her public spirit in donating the use of a large tract of land in Rolfe street, for school garden purposes.

Not the least benefit from the school garden work comes from the realization on the part of the pupils of how to produce results by the work of their hands. The boys and girls who took an interest in the work last season, will undoubtedly show a disposition in after years to look to the soil as a source of wealth, realizing that in their own toil must rest ultimately their main reliance for whatever they may possess of this world's goods.

It was interesting to read that yesterday, a formidable force of nine women employed by the United States government as federal probers, arrived in Manchester to probe the high cost of living in New Hampshire's largest city. They are to work under supervision of the bureau of labor. It is said, for instance, that meat costs more in Manchester than it does in New York city. The 4000 workers recently laid off by the Amoskeag Manufacturing company undoubtedly find the high price of meat a great hardship. The women investigators will call on housewives and obtain data and figures when possible. As soon as these nine women have finished with Manchester, we wish their chief would order them to Lowell. While the wage earners have so far paid high rent and high prices for food, the time has probably now come when the government decision as to whether the prices are all right would be welcomed.

What shall we say about this news from Kansas City? What conclusion is to be deduced from the announcement that two days ago, in one of the city's largest men's clothing stores, a customer came in,—male customer, of course,—and just naturally knocked all the selling staff flabbergasted by ordering, paying for, and taking away with him, one full dress suit "in good mechanical order?" The reason the clerks were astonished was because, although that was the biggest store of its kind in Kansas City, no full dress suit has been sold for a period of 18 months. The Kansas City papers moreover claimed that no full suit of any kind had been sold in the city for that period of time. We might regard this as a remarkable condition to prevail in a bustling city like K. C., and a condition that, by the way, reflects the citizens' good sartorial judgment. But, time and occasion permitting, it does seem as if that Kansas City man who bought this "waiter uniform" ought to mender down some of the main streets, not proudly but casual like, in broad daylight, and give his fellow citizens a treat.

Some of the republican papers, still keeping on the heels of the president and barking, remind their readers that while the president is at sea, it will be well for all good Americans to extend prayers for the safety of the chief executive as he proceeds over the great waters. There is more irony than earnestness in what they mean. Prayers for the safety of persons voyaging abroad are always in good form and the accomplishments of science, by the grace of God supplementing earnest prayers, may reduce the possibility of danger to our beloved president to a minimum. With this conclusion, however, it should still be borne in mind that prayers will be not so much needed, considering the company in which Mr. Wilson is now travelling, as would be the case if he were unfortunate enough to be placed on the steamship George Washington entirely surrounded by republicans.

Let us hope that the barometer indicating the condition of business in the United States, will register as cheerful a figure for the months of December and January as was registered for November, the month the war came to an end. R. G. Dunn's experts find that in November, there were only 570 commercial failures. The figures have been decreasing steadily for eight months. R. G. Dunn first commenced to collect these monthly figures in 1894 and in all this long time, come prosperity or adversity, there has never been a month when the number of commercial failures was so small as for the month of November.

It is a mighty good thing the echoes from England are to the effect that so far as a monetary consideration can in some part offset Germany's brutality and meanness to the world, Germany must pay 125 billions of dollars. The German nation, its government and the German as an individual, have brought themselves so low in the scale of decency that assessing them a fine as one would a drunkard or a criminal, is about the only way of giving them a punishment they will feel. Most of the world, when it reads reports which show the contrast between the interior cities and towns of Germany, safe and unruined by big guns or aerial bombs, with the cities of Belgium and northern France, will feel that the nation, like a murderer, ought to be put in solitary confinement.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

The Sun's attention has been called to the fact that the items in this column yesterday telling about different Lowell families of brothers being on duty with the army over in France and planning to have reunions in Paris and other French cities where possible, might have had, included also, the fact that the family of Mr. Euclide Gendron, 732 Moody street, has contributed five sons to the army and four of these Gendron boys now in France, all privates. Arthur, Alphonse, Gilbert and Albert, may be able to get together in one place at one time before returning to the United States. The fifth brother, Romeo, is at a southern mobilization camp and it is improbable he will get a chance to go to France. Of course no one has the sympathy of all his Lowell friends that he has not only missed a share in the war, but also of seeing any part of France.

I have a lot of people ask me if I have noticed what a good production Manager Carroll of the Lowell Opera House is giving in the plays the Emerson company is putting on down there. Many persons do not know exactly what is meant by the "production" part of the play. It means the scenery, stage furniture and stage equipment. Lowell audiences ever since last Labor day when the company opened, have been admiring the picture presented when the curtain rolls up on each act. They pay tribute and praise to the "production" part of the bill. Of course narrowing down to the persons directly responsible for the united effort which happily results in the stock company's offering seeming like a "regular" show, some credit is forthcoming to Mr. Carroll as he has to sanction whatever expense is necessary and if he did not have some liberal ideas about spending money for the production, what is produced would not look as well as it does.

As this production part of the enterprise is a matter connected with "back part of the house," to use some show jargon, the most credit is due the stage director, Augustine Glassmire who directs the efforts of the scenic artist, Charles Stewart, whose home is at Hyannis, and the stage mechanics. The scenery is built by Jack Bucy, stage carpenter, who is a Lowell man. It is painted of course by Mr. Stewart. All the objects, big and little that have to be borrowed and sometimes made at the theatre to give realism to the action of the play, are the responsibility of the "master of properties," as the big producers call him and in this case, at the Opera House it is Martin McKell, a Lowell man and many years in the business. The company here at the Opera House is one of the three companies in three different cities, under control of Mr. Emerson and many of the productions built and painted in Lowell can of course be easily motor trucked over to Lawrence and Haverhill, the other two "stands," on the Emerson circuit.

Laurence Sampson, the K. of C. war camp secretary, who by the way seems to be doing some very good work for the benefit of the Camp Devens boys who visit Lowell, tells me that his next and perhaps hardest proposition will be to find some restaurant in Lowell whose manager is willing to make an arrangement whereby the visiting soldiers can get a full meal at a price at which it would be served civilian customers. Mr. Sampson says the ground for assuming that this should be done can be found in the fact that the soldier is in uniform at considerable of a personal monetary sacrifice to himself and his wages are very small. The soldiers have complained to Mr. Sampson and other war workers that a couple of Lowell restaurants did not treat them just right, either in kind of food served, or prices paid. I cannot believe, however, that any restaurant would discriminate against the soldiers. Nothing of that kind would be tolerated.

CARTRIDGE PEOPLE ENJOYED FINE SHOW

The mail and messenger service department of the United States Cartridge company held forth at Odd Fellows hall last evening in what turned out to be one of the most enjoyable and successful banquets and entertainments, from the point of view of those present, of the entire season so far.

The feature of the entertainment was a minstrel show, which was brought up to its successful presentation by the watchful coaching of Eddie Donahue, Walter Pearson made a good interlocator, and Joseph Hollingsworth and Bill Killion, who served in the capacity of Tambo and Bones, showed that as sure-fire comedians they are there with the goods.

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT

Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of Danderine at any drug store for a few cents, pour a little in your hand and rub it into the scalp. It is now planned to develop a modern, up-to-date church and parish house on the present site of the High Street church. CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! See if tongue is coated, breath hot or stomach sour

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When the little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, bile-remembrance, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

FIFTEEN INCHES OF SNOW IN BANGOR, MAINE

BANGOR, Me., Dec. 6.—Snow falling steadily for more than 24 hours up to noon yesterday, increasing in volume north and east of this city, brought out the snow-fighting equipment of the Bangor & Aroostook and Maine Central Eastern divisions last night. In the upper sections of the roads the fall was from 15 to 18 inches in some places.

The fall in Bangor was about 15 inches, interfering with trolley traffic until cleared late in the day. The fall decreased west of this city, also in the extreme eastern section of the state. It was the first snowfall of any amount in the city.

Deer hunters have been waiting for such a fall and a large kill is expected in the next few days.

The port of Bangor is still open, although anchor ice stopped the Bangor-Brewer ferry yesterday. The new schooner Charles D. Stanford, recently launched here and being made ready for sea, has been towed to Bucksport to avoid being frozen in.

MEETING TO AID IRELAND SUNDAY EVE

Every member of an Irish organization in this city and all persons in Lowell interested in Ireland, are invited to a great mass meeting to be held next Sunday night at 7.30 in Association hall to inaugurate "self-determination week," Dec. 8 to 15, in Lowell. Every Irish society has taken action in favor of this mass meeting and it is expected that a record-breaking crowd will be on hand for the occasion. Ex-mayor James M. Curley of Boston will be the principal speaker, and there will also be other talented speakers present. Commissioner James E. Donnelly will be heard in some of his fine solos and will open the meeting by leading the audience in "The Star Spangled Banner." James O'Sullivan will preside. There will be a fine musical program.

"Shall self-determination for small nations be the result of the peace conference," is the subject of the meeting. "Self-determination" week is called forth by the article in President Wilson's list of 14 principles of peace that declares that each people shall determine the form of government under which it wishes to live, and the speakers at this meeting will endeavor to show the application of this principle of self-determination to Ireland as one of the small nations at the peace conference. The movement is one of country-wide scope, and Lowell is but one of many cities which will hold meetings for this purpose during the coming week.

PROSPECTIVE NEWLAUNDS GIVEN PARTY AND FINE GIFTS BY THEIR FRIENDS

A reception and entertainment was held last evening in Merrimack hall in honor of Miss Anna Cox, who is soon to become the bride of Joseph Gardner, the popular overseer of machine construction at the United States Cartridge company. Miss Cox was the recipient of a large gas dome which was presented to her by her friends in the draw shell department where she is employed, and the prospective bridegroom was pleasantly surprised by the presentation by his shopmates of a substantial purse of gold.

The entertainment consisted of buck and wing dancing by Ayotte & Dumont, solos by Mrs. May Dillon Doherty, Mrs. Nora Regan Longtin and Mrs. Joyce, and speeches by Leon Berry, overseer of the tool room; Cyrus Chase, machine construction department; John Collopy of the draw shell department, and John J. Carroll, president of Local 133, Machinists. John P. Kenney was master of ceremonies during the evening, which was filled out most acceptably by general dancing.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Corey, Miss Julia Sullivan, draw shell department; William Longtin,

ANNUAL MEETING OF CLUB LAFAYETTE

Over 100 members attended the annual meeting of Club Lafayette, which was held last evening in the well appointed quarters of the organization in upper Merrimack street. President Z. A. Normandin occupied the chair and a feature of the session was the annual report of the treasurer, F. A. Lamour, which showed the club to be in a very prosperous condition. The secretary, Dr. George E. Caluso, also made a report of the doings of the club. The election of three directors for a term of three years resulted as follows: F. N. Labelle, re-elected; Arthur J. Lambert and Willie Rousseau.

At the close of the business session a social hour was held, during which luncheon was served and a varied entertainment program was given. The evening's program had been prepared by the board of directors, who were highly complimented for the manner in which it was carried out.

A MOTHER'S STRENGTH

Mother, whose hands rock the cradle, often needs more than ordinary food to help maintain the blood-quality and strength and to assure adequate nourishment to the child. WILL HANG STOCKING ON CARDINAL'S BED

In the city of Le Mans, Department of Sarthe, France, on one of the hand-carved posts of a canopied bed, once occupied nightly by cardinal prince of the Catholic church and on which Napoleon spent several nights, there will be hanging on Christmas eve, a big coarse yarn woolen stocking, knit by a member of the Catholic Women's National league of New York. Santa Claus can't miss it if he visits the room and James J. McDonald of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., a Knights of Columbus overseas secretary, who will occupy the bed, declares he really expects Santa Claus to visit him. The stocking which secretary McDonald plans to hang on the cardinal's bed is long and capacious but, McDonald says, it will not be big enough for all the things this K. of C. secretary wants. He has asked for these items:

50,000 cigarettes.
1000 cigars.
5000 pounds of hard candy.
5000 pounds of chocolates.
2000 pieces of soap.
2000 towels.
1500 rosaries.
1500 prayer books.
1500 scapulars.

McDonald, of course, doesn't want all the things for himself. He wants to give them all to the American soldiers and sailors who will visit him on Christmas. It should be explained that McDonald's room is in a Knights of Columbus club house, maintained by the Knights for American soldiers and sailors.

William J. Mulligan, chairman of Knights of Columbus committee on war activities, left for France early this month especially to enact the role of Santa Claus to our soldiers and sailors abroad and Secretary McDonald will probably get all he asks for and more, too, in the line of "smokes," candies, etc., for distribution to soldiers and sailors.

TO FLY ACROSS ATLANTIC

Germans Building Airplane
Capable of Carrying 100 Passengers

LONDON, Dec. 6.—The Germans are building an airplane and a Zeppelin with which they intend trying a trip across the Atlantic, according to the correspondent at Berlin of the Daily Express. The correspondent says he learned this when being shown over an aircraft factory at Stettin, a suburb of Berlin, by Managing Director Raasch, a former naval officer.

The Staaken works, built during the war, cover hundreds of acres and employ 3000 workers. Machines employed in raids on London and Paris were built there. The plane being constructed there for the transatlantic flight, says the correspondent, has a wing spread of 185 feet and engines of 2000 horse power.

Almost immediately after the armistice was signed the Staaken plant began converting the fighting planes into commercial machines. It has nine plants to link all the European capitals with Berlin, and dozens of planes built entirely of aluminum are being transformed for postal service.

The correspondent says he has learned that the Zeppelin factory at Friedrichshafen is building an airship for a transatlantic voyage, capable of carrying 100 passengers. It has nine plants and eight propellers. Its first flight will be in July next, if the international situation clears by that time. The trip is expected to be made in 40 hours.

The correspondent was told of the remarkable flight of a Zeppelin in November of 1917. The airship started from Bulgaria for East Africa with 25 tons of munitions and medicines and a crew of 22. It had arrived over Khartoum in the Sudan when it was ordered by wireless to return because it was learned that the bulk of the forces of General von Lettow-Vorbeck, the German commander in East Africa, had surrendered. It returned to its starting point four days after it had left.

Director Raasch claimed that this airship could have gone from Berlin to New York and back without stopping.

STOLEN AUTO RECOVERED
A Hudson five-passenger touring car owned by Earl C. Downs of 3 Quimby avenue, this city, which was stolen last Tuesday, was recovered on the Littleton road about a mile and a half from Chelmsford Centre. The machine, so it was stated, was left on the side of the road sometime Tuesday night and has been there since. The local police as well as the owner of the car have been notified. Although a thorough inspection of the car was not made, it is not believed that it is damaged in any way.

News From Camp Devens

CAMP'S FIRST CONVALESCENTS ARRIVE

RIVE AND WALK TO BAR

RACKS

CAMP DEVENS, MASS., Dec. 6.—The first of the overseas veterans who have been expected at this camp for the past week have arrived. Forty-one of them, all convalescing from wounds received in battle, last night were quartered in the barracks, formerly occupied by the 10th company, Depot Brigade. And they are happy, contented for the first time in months to be back again on New England soil.

They arrived here in groups varying in size from seven to 15. Nobody knew they were coming. They found no one to meet them at the station and they found their way to Camp Devens alone. But that won't happen again. When Maj. Gen. H. P. McCallum heard about it he ordered that henceforth ambulances are to meet every train coming to Ayer, whether word has been received that troops are aboard or not. It is the purpose of the war department to have New England convalescents come to the New England convalescent hospital for complete recuperation and subsequent discharge. Many of those here are New England boys, but there are some men from other parts of the country among them.

Menu For Sick O. K.

The convalescent men have nothing but the highest words of praise for the Camp Devens menu. They have been treated like princes, they say. And more than that, Camp Devens is going to care for these boys right. They are not to have any work to do, no guards nor fatigue; just rest. Y. Hut 25 has been turned over to them for their use. Funds to provide little extra delicacies have been furnished and from now on these men are going to have it mightily pleasant. Tomorrow they will be moved from the 20th company barracks to those formerly occupied by the 1st company. This is done to have them near the base hospital. More men from overseas are expected daily, with a large number when transports arrive in Boston from France.

Maj. J. A. Haggerty, himself an overseas veteran, is in command of the returned men.

It was a rather touching scene at the entraining point yesterday afternoon when the 42d Infantry left Camp Devens for Camp Upton. The first section, about 500 men, left their barracks just before 2 o'clock and, escorted by a band and men from the other regiments making up the Plymouth division, marched to the railroad tracks opposite the quartermaster stores. There were eight long trains there and as fast as one filled up and pulled out another moved to the platform. The right sections pulled out at half-hour intervals, and as each one left Maj. Gen. McCallum stood and watched saluting the dozens of men who gave him their last salute through the car windows.

General Watches Men Depart Sadly

The general didn't leave the tracks until the last train had pulled out. He looked pretty blue, for it was the first unit to be taken from his division. But from 2 o'clock until 5 he stood right there in the biting wind and watched every man going away. Bands played cheery music as each train left and the men who escorted the 42d men to the station cheered as they departed. The seventh section to go will have as their last remembrance of Camp Devens several hundred men standing at "present arms." Gen. McCallum and his personal staff standing rigidly at salute and the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" floating to them through the car windows.

Orders have been received covering applications for discharge of officers of the 12th division. According to a telegram received yesterday from the adjutant general of the army, the number of officers in each grade and arm of the service, excepting regular army officers, who desire immediate discharge from the service is to be reported by telegram to Washington by noon tomorrow. This applies to officers who are not surplus.

"It is the intention of the war department to discharge these officers and replace them by third-class officers from other commands," the order reads. Third-class officers are those who have made application to remain in the regular army.

Plymouth Division's Status

The wording of this telegram causes many officers here to believe that the Plymouth division is to be maintained as a regular army division for at least sometime to come. The number of officers in the division who have made application for their discharge is not known here.

Yesterday 1612 men were discharged from the Depot Brigade. It was the biggest day for the discharging of officers since the demobilization started. Tonight the entire Depot Brigade, with the exception of those men who were to be held as a permanent organization, will have been demobilized. The first officers to be discharged will go today.

There will be nearly 100 in the first lot. The negroes of the 13th Battalion will be discharged Saturday. Thousands of New Englanders who have been serving in other parts of the country in various capacities are expected here next week for demobilization.

Seven Cents to Get Home

Thousands of dollars have been paid out in the last week at the discharging station, where the men of this camp are being demobilized, but a good many men could receive as much as Frank Hall did when he was discharged yesterday without any great strain on the treasury department.

Hall lives in Ayer. He had no pay coming to him, so he was only given travel money to his home. It amounted to seven cents.

Six-Day Bike Race

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, N. Y., Dec. 6.—With all the teams pedalling more than 250 miles behind the record, interest in the annual six-day bicycle race here centered today on the figures being made under the French point scoring system. McNamara and Magin led at 8 a. m. with 298 points. The race will end at midnight Saturday and the final prize winners will be determined under this system of awarding points for places won in the sprints, 15 of which are run off every 24 hours.

"THE NEW MINISTER"

A musical sketch entitled "The New Minister" was given in the vestry of the First Baptist church on Wednesday evening, by the members of the church choir. The leading roles were played by Earl Costello and Edith Doole. The costumes worn were quaint and old-fashioned, and afforded a great deal of amusement. Solos were rendered by Warren Field, choir director, as well as by Mr. Hutchinson, Mr. Colby, Dr. Dan Line, Miss Ida Olson, Mrs.

Alcott and Mrs. Myers. Miss Mildred Kennedy assumed the part of the popular spinster lady, and her few lines of song acquainted the listeners with her aims and aspirations in life.

Sailors Hartley and Coogan in Fast Draw—Conley and

Last night was "navy night" at the Crescent A. A. and a program of boxing, the like of which has seldom been seen in this section, was greatly enjoyed by a large and enthusiastic crowd. The card marked the first arranged by Arthur Flaherty, the new matchmaker, and so pleased were the members with its rare excellence that many extended congratulations to the famous battler of long ago.

The main event, one of 12 rounds, between Pete Hartley of New York and Mel Coogan of Newport, both members of the great American navy, was about as classy a bout as one would care to see. Both "battlers" were in perfect shape and while they

LIFE OR HONOR

A Drama of Mystery Thrills Introducing

LEAH BAIRD—JAMES MORRISON

AND AN ALL STAR CAST

A gripping drama presented in a novel way. What is to be done? The question concerns a Man's Life or a Woman's Honor. If the one is to be saved, the other is bound to be sacrificed. In both cases the parties involved are absolutely innocent. Yet incidents are so clear, beyond dispute, and to all appearances so conclusive are the facts in the case, that a life is to be sacrificed if the one person who can rectify things will not come forth; yet if he dare do so, it positively means the sure death of a woman's honor. What's to be done?

"sailed" into each other from going to go, and uncoiled many stinging walls during the progress of the bout, at no time was either in distress and they left the ring in the pink of condition amid a roar of applause that indicated the fans' appreciation for their excellent work. The draw decision rendered by the new referee, Matty Carney, was a very satisfactory award and met with the approval of all.

The bout gave the fans an opportunity to see about everything known to the night game. Coogan is a regular jumping jack, and performed with lightning like rapidity at all times. He has a great left jab and a heavy kick with the right, and he let 'em go from all angles. Hartley, however, "stuck with the ship" and while not quite as fast as his opponent, he upheld the traditions of our fighting forces and "never retreated." He stayed right up there and swapped with his opponent whenever required to do so. The first six rounds were a 50-50 break. In the seventh round Coogan, danced around the ring with amazing speed and while Hartley went right after him, he was unable to land an effective blow. The eighth was an even-tempered proposition, but in the ninth Coogan again dashed, and at one time he swung with such force and missed that he went to the floor. He was up in a second and resumed his aggressiveness. The tenth was even, but Hartley had a shade in the last two rounds.

The semi-final, too, had all the earmarks of a splendid number, but unfortunately it was not allowed to continue. Frank Molinas of Lowell and Young Francis of Lawrence were the principals and both were in rare form. For two rounds they went at it like champions with honors even and the fans delighted with the showing. Then in the third, Molinas came to the front and while Francis was by no means in distress, Lieut. Petrie ordered the bout terminated, and Referee Carney called it off and pointed to Molinas. Both men left the ring in perfect trim.

Johnny Boyle, of Lowell and Jack Morgan of Lawrence appeared in one of the preliminaries. After about one minute of action, during which Boyle worked with bewildering speed Morgan "sunk" to the floor, and was counted out.

The first preliminary had as opponents Happy Conley and Joe Armstrong.

strong, both of Lowell and it proved to be one of the best prelims ever seen in this city. Both boys went to it with a vim, and while Conley sent his adversary down for the count of nine in the first round, Armstrong later came back strong and evaded matters. Their work was a treat to look upon and Referee Carney's award made a hit with all.

It was announced that on next Thursday night Frankie Britt of New Bedford and Irving Margolis, the ex. A.A. champion of the United States, will appear in the main bout. The other numbers will introduce Young Allen vs. Young Healey of Lowell (Happily Conley of Lowell, Tom Marks of Boston; Sam Hill vs. Greek Angel, both of Boston).

POLO NOTES

Frank Hardy & Co. from Lawrence will meet the Lowell poloists at the Crescent rink tonight, and a great battle is expected. The defeat that Hardy and his pals slipped to Lowell Thanksgiving night, was a bitter pill for Lowell and Capt. Harkins and his men are out to get revenge.

With the transfer of the Quincey team to Marlboro, the three new cities, taken in at the opening of the season have now lost their franchisees. Cambridge was first to quit, then Boston, and finally Quincey. The Cambridge franchise was taken over by Lawrence, and immediately an improvement was

STEP ON GERMAN SOIL

The 26th Preferred Honor of Stepping on German Soil to Early Return Home

(Special to The Sun.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—It is apparent that the 26th division will not be among those to be returned to the United States at an early date. There has been a good deal of speculation as to the reason, but it is now understood that it will remain overseas for the signal honor of stepping on German soil. It is understood that the 42d division will share in that distinction. Unofficial statements from high official sources state that the 26th was given the choice between being relieved from further overseas duty or remaining on overseas duty till they stood on German soil and that the division unhesitatingly chose the latter.

WANT NEW HAMPSHIRE AUTOIST

The chief of police of Bedford has sent a communication to the local police informing them that the owner of the car bearing the New Hampshire registration 21867 is wanted in Bedford. It is claimed that a few days ago the operator of the New Hampshire car ran into another car in Lexington and did not stop to ascertain the extent of damage caused.

CARDINAL WILL ADDRESS IRISH MEETING

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Cardinal O'Connell of Boston has notified the committee in charge that he will speak at the mass meeting to solicit American support for the self-determination of Ireland, to be held next Tuesday evening in Madison Square Garden by the Irish-American society.

There will be adopted at the meeting a resolution, it is expected, asking President Wilson to urge that the 1,500,000 men and women voters of Ireland shall be given an opportunity to express their preferences by means of a plebiscite as to the kind of government the Emerald Isle should have. It is the belief of the committee, in view of the successive Sinn Féin victories at the parliamentary by-elections held in Ireland, that at least 1,400,000 Irish voters would declare for the complete independence of Ireland.

THIEVES BREAK INTO LIQUOR STORES

The liquor shop of P. F. Cox & Co. at 245 Broadway and that of E. F. Brady & Co. at 51 Fletcher street were recently broken into by thieves and in both places a certain quantity of liquor was taken. The break in the shop of Cox & Co. took place a few nights ago, the thieves gaining an entrance by breaking a rear window. It is reported that liquor to the value of about $40 was taken, as well as 15 cents in cash, the only money in the register. This is the second break in that place within a month.

The store of Brady & Co. was entered by the front door, where the glass was broken. The thieves got away with a quantity of liquor, but no money was taken. This break was committed early last Sunday morning. These breaks have been reported to the police.

A regular meeting of James A. Garfield, W.R.C., 33, was held last evening with Mrs. Almira Kilpatrick in the chair. Prior to the business session whist was enjoyed and luncheon served. The meeting was brought to a close with the salute to the flag.

In spite of inclement weather the Merrimack Clothing company, across from city hall, has been highly gratified today at the number of Shuman made $25 suits and overcoats purchased at the store because of the big, attractive ad in last night's Sun. Discriminating buyers know that when the Shuman shop guarantees a garment to be all wool, it's an honest statement. Tonight of course the bargain buyers will be out in full force to avail themselves of the 6.20-9.30 cash sale. The good values obtainable tonight are because the goods are exchanged for cash on the spot. Many mothers are fitting up their little boys at this store.

ST. PETER'S ORPHANAGE

A very interesting program has been planned for "Donation Day" for St. Peter's orphanage and tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock a musicale will be held at the orphanage on Stevens street.
